Court Orders Lewis To Stand Trial

Bidault's Party Leads Reds in French Vote

PARIS, (AP)—Revised figures Monday put President Georges Bidault's Mouvement Republicain Populaire ahead in the French parliamentary elections. An M.R.P. leader declared the Communist bid for leadership of the Fourth Republic "has been rebuffed."

New figures announced by the interior ministry gave the M.R.P. 24,751 electors from Sunday's election, and the Communists 24,544. The electors will select the upper house of parliament. The Communists previously won more seats than any other party in the lower house.

Nearly complete returns announced previously had given the Communists an upper house lead.

But interior ministry figures for 68 of the 91 deparments showed that in popular votes, the M.R.P. was leading the Communists, 3,839,835 to 3,736,077.

The Communists have based their bid to name the premier on their victory in the Nov. 10 elections, when they won 180 of the 618 seats in the national assembly, the lower house of parliament, to the M.R.P.'s 162 and the Socialists' 101.

The Socialists have not replied to a Communist invitation to join in forming a working-class party government with a Communist premier. The M.R.P. has said it will not co-operate with the Communists in any government.

Electoral colleges will meet in France's cantons Dec. 8 to choose 200 of the 315 deputies in the council of the republic. The parties will be allotted 8 more seats on the basis of their assembly strength, and voters in overseas territories will choose another 65 on Dec. 15.

The council, weak in legislative strength in comparison to the assembly, will meet with the lower house to elect a president of the republic.

Four Members Train Crews Killed in Head-on Collision

★ SASKATOON, (CP) — Four men — all members of the train crews — were killed Sunday night when two Canadian National Railways trains collided head-on at Young, Sask., about 50 miles east of here.

The dead are: Engineer J. Roy Lyons of Melville, Sask., and Fireman H. N. Currie of Duncan, B. C., both on a Winnipeg-bound express; Engineer J. O. Logan of Biggar, Sask., and Head Brakeman J. Malec, also of Biggar, both aboard a westbound freight.

Seven other persons—Frank Rehwald, editor of Der Nordwesten, a Winnipeg German-language weekly; Sterling Toles, porter; Marcel Compayre, dining car steward; George Kendall, an engineer from Melville, Sask.; P. S. Dooley, an operator at Saskatoon, and two others whose names were not available were taken to hospitals at Watrous, Melville and Saskatoon. They were suffering from what is described as minor injuries.

Passengers Shaken Up

A number of passengers suffered bruises and a shaking up.

Railway officials said an investigation into the cause of the collision was under way.

The scene was one of havoc. Wheels, pistons and other parts of the two locomotives were strewn about the track and one engine had been torn away and lay on one side of the track, the engine itself on the other.

Three passenger coaches were derailed and seven freight cars had been piled up or telescoped. A burning refrigerator car, attached to the passenger train, lighted the efforts of rescue workers laboring in subzero weather.

Alvin Brant, fireman on the freight train, jumped from the locomotive when he heard the hiss of the air blasts, overdrive at Rosslare, Scotland, since Thursday.

But the three others in the locomotives' persons have been killed, stood. Malec, who served with the R.C.A.F. Firemen in both ways up the D.F.C., was killed in the pile-up of the telescoping freight cars. The fourth body — that of Logan, was jammed under a wheel.

Railway officials said they did not know when the line would be cleared and traffic resumed.

2 Families Flee In Calgary Flood

CALGARY, (CP) — Two families were forced to vacate their homes Saturday when waters of the Bow River, backed up by an ice jam, overflowed a large part of suburban Lowery Gardens, near the western city limits.

The families were: Mr. and Mrs. L. Prain and their seven children, and Mr. and Mrs. William Ridgewell and their five children.

The flood started during the night and by Saturday about six inches of ice covered a large area of the estator, and several hundred feet of the road.

Police said Sunday the water had forced a channel through the ice pack, and the peak of the flood danger appeared to be past.

Berreta Leading In Uruguay Race

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, (AP)— Tomas Berreta gained an early lead Sunday in Uruguay's presidential race as his Colorado party pulled ahead of the nationalists.

The first 209 precincts in the city of Montevideo reporting results gave this vote by parties:

Colorado 17,546 votes; Nationalists 8,917; Democrats 3,543; Civic Union (Catholic) 3,267; Socialist 2,196; National Independents 1,756; Democrats 443.

The Colorado vote was divided among three candidates — Berreta, who received 11,221 votes; Rafael Schiaffino with 4,342, and Aldredo Baldomir with 1,983.

Under Uruguayan law the one man in a party obtaining the highest individual vote is crowned with all the votes cast for his party.

AUSTRALIAN RETURN

CALGARY, (CP) — A party of former Australian airmen who had trained at Calgary air stations during the war, arrived in Calgary Sunday night to start a new life in Canada. Several had married Calgary girls.

The Weather

Forecast: Overcast today and Tuesday with variable cloudiness during the night. Northeast winds 10 m.p.h.

A chinook was blowing in southern Alberta Monday. The temperature at Lethbridge rose from eight below zero Sunday evening to 35 above Monday morning. The warm southwesterly winds of the chinook will spread to near Calgary and Medicine Hat Monday with temperatures rising to 30 to 35 above.

Cold air will push southward again during the night giving sundown drops in temperatures in southern Alberta but with little change in the remaining regions. Blustery northern winds are expected to bring snow to southern Alberta and southwestern Saskatchewan Tuesday.

Estimated low tonight, -2.
Estimated high tomorrow, 8.
At Edmonton Tuesday, sun rises 8:18; sets 4:34.
Yesterday's maximum, 9.
Overnight low, -5.
Snowfall, trace.

U. S., Britain Plan Palestine Talks

LONDON, (Reuters) — The foreign office Saturday confirmed reports that arrangements had been made for discussions between Foreign Secretary Bevin and State Secretary Byrnes in New York on the Palestine problem.

JERUSALEM, (AP) — Fawzi Husseini, Arab leader and cousin of Jamal Effendi el Husseini, vice-chairman of the Palestine Arab higher executive, was reported assassinated Saturday night in his mountain village of Tor. The slayers escaped.

Manning Hopeful On Tax Agreement

Premier Manning said Monday he believed the federal government could reach tax transfer agreements with the majority of Canadian provinces by making only a few "reasonable concessions."

He said he did not think the dominion could achieve stability in the national economy unless the tax transfer proposals were subscribed to by a majority of the provinces.

"The dominion government is in a position to offer an alternative to its present proposals, an alternative that would mean only a few comparatively small concessions by the dominion, but of vastly more importance to the provinces," the premier declared.

Ottawa so far has refused to "give an inch," he said.

Alberta's present tax transfer agreement with the dominion expires next March. The premier declined comment on provincial plans for after that date, agreeing the hope Ottawa and the majority of the provinces would "see eye-to-eye" before that time.

Premier Hart of British Columbia said over the week-end that if his province could reach an agreement with Ottawa there would be no alternative but for B.C. to return to the income tax collection field it had vacated during the war.

Gales, Rain Lash Britain's Coasts

LONDON, (CP)— Gales and rain lashed British coasts Monday for the third successive day and the Thames, Severn and Medway rivers rose to flood stage.

A 733-ton coastal vessel was towed into Weymouth bay, her engine and boiler rooms flooded, after a day and night battle against high seas in the English channel.

Ships and landslides halted motor and rail traffic in many southern sections.

In Wales an engine driver raced his train through a torrent of falling earth from a landslide before it was derailed. The landslide was between Treharfod and Pontypridd in the Rhondda valley.

Three bodies, reported Saturday to have been swept into the coast by the sea near St. David's Head, South Wales, were thought to be members of the crew of the coastal steamship Albany, overdue at Rosslare, Scotland, since Thursday.

At Buckfastleigh, Devon, more than 50 persons were made homeless as torrents swept through the town. Firemen in boats went to their rescue and children were passed through windows.

Crowd of Italians Boos Kesselring

ROME, (AP)—A crowd of Italians booed Field Marshal Kesselring, former German commander in Italy, after he appeared at a defence witness Monday in a British war crimes trial of two German generals accused in the massacre of 335 hostages in Rome's Ardeatine caves.

Shouts of "Assassin" and "To death" were flung at the ruddy-graying officer when he stepped from the witness box after telling the court he believed reprisals for the killing of German troops were permitted by international law.

Use Martial Law In Iran District

TEHERAN, (AP)— Premier Ahmad Qavam announced Saturday night that martial law and a curfew had been imposed throughout the Zenjan district, 180 miles northwest of Teheran, immediately after government troops entered the city.

Qavam said Azerbaijan separationists had not evacuated Zenjan despite promises made six months ago and that he had warned that government troops would be ordered into the town if the evacuation were not carried out by November.

'Sinking' Vessel Is Reported Safe

NEW YORK, (AP)— The 7,176-ton Liberty ship Marie M. Meloney, reported sinking off the coast of Portugal early Monday, radioed within an hour after sending a distress message that she was "out of danger" with another ship standing by, the United States coast guard here reported.

The position of the Meloney, which left Downs, England, on its return voyage to Philadelphia, was given as 360 miles due west of Cape Finisterre, Spain.

12 Saved from Plane Wrecked on Glacier

Over the week-end, two daring Swiss pilots flying ski-equipped 'planes, made nine shuttle trips to rescue 12 American fliers whose plane crashed on an Alpine glacier. The wreckage of the plane, photographed from the air, is shown in the bottom picture. Six members of a ground rescue squad of 65 are shown climbing toward the wreckage.

Germans in American Zone Vote for Democratic Rule

STUTTGART, Germany, (AP) — American military government officials said that German voters of the United States occupation zone apparently "overwhelmingly approved" the July free democratic constitution offered them since Hitler destroyed individual liberty.

Richard M. Scammon, chief of the United States military government's election affairs branch, said a bill of rights guaranteeing "justice and freedom" appeared to have been approved by a "heavy majority" of voters of Wuerttemberg-Baden, first of three states in the American zone to vote on a constitution.

Despite an early lack of interest in the constitution and the election of 100 representatives who, in a one-house legislature, will administer a new state government, Germans rushed to the polls in the early evening to cast their ballots.

The turnout of voters, German officials said, was higher than in the June elections in which the Germans selected the men who drafted the constitution offered them for approval. First unofficial returns in the capital city of Stuttgart indicated 79.1 percent of the eligible voters turned out compared to the June average of 68.2 percent for the state in June.

Social-Christians Lead in Belgium

BRUSSELS, (AP) — The rightist Social-Christian party, on the basis of early returns, had a small majority over all other Belgian parties participating in Sunday's municipal elections.

First tabulations were:

Social-Christians	12,032
Socialists	5,675
Liberals	2,114
Communists	1,935
Other parties	1,046

Women voted for the first time since the country's liberation. The Catholic party showed progression of the exiled King Leopold, hoped with feminine support to recoup its position.

State to Purchase Coal in Canada

OLYMPIA, Wash., (AP) — The Canadian government has granted Washington state permission to buy Canadian coal to heat state institutions during the fuel emergency, Governor Wallgren announced Sunday.

Negotiations to purchase the coal from private Canadian firms are proceeding satisfactorily, the governor said.

Off-Duty Policemen in Tacoma Raid Alleged 'Bootlegging Joints'

TACOMA, Wash., (AP)—A "vigilante raid" by Tacoma police officers, acting while off duty and without the knowledge of their superiors, gained momentum late Sunday in new raids on alleged "bootlegging joints" in the face of an order by Chief Percy Gregg which removed from duty 19 officers who took part in the original raids Saturday.

Police headquarters said some of the 19 were out Sunday reinforced by other off-duty members of the force.

Several places had been raided, a score of arrests made and prisoners were still arriving at headquarters.

After Saturday's insurrection, the reason for which was not explained fully, the officers dismissed said they were planning a legal fight to regain their jobs.

Acting without knowledge of Tacoma police officials and led by Patrolman Gene Reardon, the slayer of warrants used in the raids, the 10 officers entered four places and arrested 21 persons as operators or customers of alleged gambling or bootlegging resorts Saturday night.

Greece Charges 30 With Aiding Bands

ATHENS (AP)—The government announced Monday that Alcipiades Loneis, a member ofthe E.A.M. (National Liberation Front) central committee, had been arrested with 29 other persons on charges of "inciting arms and recruiting for guerilla bands."

The 30 were ordered deported to the islands of Cyclades but all filed notice of appeal.

Molotov Arranges Talk with Byrnes

NEW YORK, (AP)—Foreign Minister Molotov of Russia arranged to call on State Secretary Byrnes Monday for what may be their first encounter in discussion of Soviet-American problems in many months.

The appointment, diplomatic informants said, was made at Mr. Molotov's request. The purpose was not disclosed, but it was noted that Mr. Molotov acted at a time when Big Four peace making has more or less bogged down in details of the Trieste settlement, when the great powers have split sharply over limiting the veto and when the whole troop-report issue could explode violently in the split between Russia and the western powers.

Censure More Likely

It appeared earlier that a move in the U.N. assembly to censure Russia's use of the veto power in the security council was likely after Mr. Molotov had rejected all efforts by British, the United States, France and China to compromise the issue.

Mr. Molotov's action, itself based on his right of veto, killed all hope of modification of the security council voting system, but left delegates with the opportunity of action in the assembly, where majority rule applies.

Meanwhile, there was speculation whether the apparently widening gulf between Russia and the western powers might speed to the issue the flow of reports on troops in foreign lands, and disarmament.

Proposal Rejected

Mr. Molotov's attitude on the veto was made known in a Big Five meeting Saturday night. In blocking any voluntary curtailment of the veto, Mr. Molotov apparently he urged ministers of the other powers to rebuff all efforts to limit the veto power of nominating or rejected his proposal.

This lineup foreshadowed the veto battle now built by Britain in the assembly, where the non-Russian powers have a decided majority to push through virtually any proposal they desire against Soviet opposition.

Because of the veto and other arguments, it now seems that the current series of Big Four foreign and foreign ministers meetings may be ended here in two or three weeks without a diplomatic conflict as when they began.

The foreign ministers' council concluded another of a debate-filled sessions for late today on the Italian peace treaty and the international internationalization of the, which has monopolized its work for three weeks.

Cairo Students Quiet on Holiday

CAIRO, (CP)— Government offices and schools in Cairo were closed Monday to celebrate the Moslem New Year's day. Further anti-government and anti-British demonstrations by students of Fuad I university were not expected in view of the occasion.

Reports said the government might close down indefinitely the university after the riots originated Saturday. Thousands of students protesting against continued occupation of Egypt by British troops, shouted: "Down with (Premier Ismail) Sidky Pasha and (British Foreign Secretary) Bevin."

Four students were injured and a policeman killed, Sunday.

Poles Not Forced Comply with Call

OTTAWA, (CP)—Poles in Canada are not compelled to comply with a call from the Polish legation here for a general registration with the Canadian representatives of their home government, the department of external affairs said Monday.

The department's announcement was prompted by a statement issued by the legation in Ottawa calling for a general enrolment of all Polish nationals in the dominion.

"It should . . . be clearly understood," the department said, "that under Canadian law no one in this country need present himself for registration at the Polish legation unless he wishes to do so. There is no law in Canada which compels anyone to comply with an order on the part of a foreign government to register at its diplomatic or consular offices."

"MONTY" STARTS TOUR

CAIRO, (AP)— Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, chief of the British Imperial general staff, arrived Saturday from Malta on a tour of the Middle East, Italy and Austria.

Judge Overrides Claims Of Lack of Jurisdiction

Judge Goldsborough directed the trial after ruling that Mr. Lewis had not purged himself of contempt charges on which he was cited Nov. 21. Judge Goldsborough overrode objections of counsel for the United Mine Workers and their leader that his court lacked jurisdiction.

Judge Goldsborough declared Lewis and his United Mine Workers "undertook to decide the law for themselves" and ordered them to trial Wednesday. The trial probably will run into next week while industrial paralysis tightens from the diminishing coal supply.

Judge Goldsborough also expressed the hope that labor unions would not "do something that might influence congress" to pass legislation which might "set the labor movement back for years."

"I don't know whether I was justified in making that statement," he commented afterward. "It was extra-judicial."

The White House meanwhile maintained silence.

Welly K. Hopkins, counsel for Mr. Lewis and the union, sought a delay to permit Joseph A. Padway, general counsel of the American Federation of Labor, to join in the defense but Judge Goldsborough refused the request, commenting that the "public interest" requires as speedy a settlement as possible in view of the mine strike now in its fifth day.

While Mr. Lewis sat silent in a jammed courtroom, Hopkins argued that Judge Goldsborough lacked jurisdiction both to issue the order requiring Mr. Lewis to rescind his no-contract notice to the government, which set off the coal shutdown and to issue the contempt citation which followed.

Then Mr. Hopkins announced that Mr. Lewis and the union had taken no action to comply with the court's order that the no-contract notice be withdrawn and were willing to go to a trial without it.

Boy Gravely Hurt In Sled Accident

Injured in a sleighing accident Sunday, Raymond Rosenthal, nine, of 10262 90 st., was in critical condition in the Royal Alexandra hospital Monday. He has brain injuries and a compound fracture of the skull.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rosenthal, the boy was going down a hill at 102 ave. and 92 st. on his sled Sunday afternoon when he slammed into a large bob-sleigh being pulled up the hill by three boys. He was rushed to hospital in R. Smith's ambulance and an emergency operation was performed.

The accident occurred at 4:20 p.m. The three boys who were pulling their bob-sleigh up the hill were Milton Speaker, 8524 102A ave., John Miller, 9417 102A ave., and Melvin Jones, 8921 114 ave.

The three told John Dobey, 10245 92 st., what had happened and he called police.

This was the second "winter sports" accident this year. Last Sunday, Richard McRae, six, 10138 92 st., had a parted ear while coasting down Rowland rd. hill on his skis. He suffered head injuries.

Roper Hits Stand On Tax Proposal

CALGARY, (CP)—J. E. Cook of Calmar was re-elected president of the Alberta C.C.F. at the annual convention which closed here Saturday. Mrs. Nellie Peterson of Mayerthorpe was re-elected first vice-president and W. Margolis of Edmonton returned as treasurer, all by acclamation. W. W. Scott of Lethbridge defeated P. N. R. Morrison of Calgary for the office of second vice-president.

Elmer E. Roper, M.L.A., of Edmonton, was re-elected provincial leader. In his acceptance speech he attacked Premier Manning's attitude on the federal government tax agreements. He charged that the Social Credit party had an alliance or an "understanding" with Premiers Drew of Ontario and Duplessis of Quebec.

Clifford Lee of Edmonton and Mrs. Marquis were elected to the party's national council. Other contenders for the position were George Ellinson of Calgary, Henry Young of Millet and Mr. Scott.

Resolutions were passed to prohibit official C.C.F. participation in municipal politics. The party's repeated licking in civic elections had damaged the party's standing provincially, it was argued.

Say Arms Stores Found in Convent

LONDON, (AP) — The Russian news agency Tass reported in a Tirana dispatch Monday that stores of arms, ammunition and Fascist leaflets, apparently dating from the German occupation of Albania, had been discovered in a building of the Franciscan convent at Scutari.

Valuable documents throwing light on the treacherous activities of Albanian quislings and their contact with the Albanian Catholic clergy and with the Vatican were found with the arms," the dispatch said.

SOVIET WANTS BIG GUNS

LONDON, (Reuters)—The Soviet Communist party organ Pravda said the Soviet Union "must surpass the artillery production of other countries," Moscow Radio reported Sunday.

Expect 30 Trucks On Alaska Haul

About 30 trucks loaded with supplies for Alaska are expected through Edmonton Monday and Tuesday en route from the United States' cities. First convoy of about a dozen trucks was expected sometime Monday from Great Falls, Mont. A second group of 18 trucks was reported to have left Seattle Sunday and these may reach Edmonton by Tuesday.

The trucks from Great Falls are loaded with food and other supplies for various points in Alaska. The Seattle convoy is loaded with supplies for the Alaska railway. Trucks in this convoy are being manned by 29 railroad employes from Seattle to Whitehorse, Yukon, last week. One tank truck carrying 2,800 gallons of gasoline accompanied the fleet.

Other trucks have gone through Edmonton recently hauling food to Alaska, which has been short of supplies during the 54-day maritime strike on the Pacific coast. That tie-up was near settlement during the week-end and some food was expected to leave by ships this week for Alaska ports.

Save 12 Victims Of Alpine Crash

INTERLAKEN, Switzerland, (AP)

Twelve persons who survived five days on an Alpine glacier 12,000 feet above sea level were safe on a United States army hospital train en route to Vienna Monday rescued from their plight by the same route they got down — through the air.

Swiss army officers and guides, piped, three-place Piesoler Storch airplanes to the glacier and their baggage out Sunday in nine separate flights over the 10 miles between Interlaken and Jungfrau peak, 13 miles east of Interlaken, and their survey perch on Gauli glacier.

They found the survivors, all four women, four U. S. army officers, two U. S. non-commissioned officers and a male civilian — had been in a sheltered hole in the glacier, 12 miles southeast of Interlaken, since the crash landing last Thursday of a U. S. army Dakota transport plane.

They had lived on box lunches for three days and, after those gave out, on cubes of bouillon and tea day to each. They drank snow melted over fires of gasoline, oil and parts of the plane, and had slept on blankets and the plane's seats and upholstery. Swiss mountain guides reported snowfall had converted the cabin of the slightly damaged plane into a cozy "igloo" for them.

Offers to Deliver Gas to East U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Claude A. Williams, president of Transcontinental Gas Pipeline Company, Inc., testified Monday that his company could begin delivering 50,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas a day to the eastern United States through the Big and Little Inch pipelines in two to three weeks.

Mr. Williams told the house of representatives surplus property committee that his company could increase this to 180,000,000 cubic feet by from 30 to 45 days, and to 225,000,000 cubic feet in about 90 days.

The committee is looking into the possibility of using the gas carriers for emergency use in piping gas to fuel-short eastern industries.

New Alaska Link Said Not Feasible

OTTAWA, (CP)—Construction of a railroad or a second Alaska highway link between Canada and Alaska through British Columbia is not considered feasible at this time by the defence department, an official said Monday.

Although there was no direct comment, it was the view reached here to a statement by U.S. Senator Warren G. Magnuson (Dem., Wash), who said he was convinced that Canadian government "backwardness" was holding up development of the Pacific northwest.

H. Morgenthau, Sr. Dies in New York

NEW YORK, (AP) — Henry Morgenthau, Sr., 90, former United States ambassador to Turkey, died Monday at his home here.

Mr. Morgenthau was the father of Henry Morgenthau, Jr., former secretary of the treasury. He served as ambassador to Turkey from 1913 to 1916.

Court Orders John L. Lewis To Stand Trial on Wednesday

result in punishment of the union chief if convicted of contempt.

Mr. Hopkins attempted, however, to delay the trial date. He said the union has had no opportunity to read the government's argument. A bulky brief was presented at the start of the session by John F. Sonnett, assistant attorney-general.

Mr. Hopkins declared also that some union counsel were out of town and would not be ready.

Mr. Sonnett told Judge Goldsborough the government would object to any delay in view of the strike emergency. Mr. Goldsborough affirmed the Wednesday date and directed both sides to be on hand in the same courtroom two days hence.

Contrary to the government's position, Mr. Hopkins argued that Mr. Lewis' notice to Interior Secretary Krug terminating the U.M.W. contract was "both legal and proper." He said also that neither Mr. Lewis nor the union had taken any action in compliance with the court's order to withdraw the cancellation notice.

John Sonnett, chief government counsel, immediately offered to argue against the union's position, but Judge Goldsborough cut him short.

"By Society Itself"

"This complaint was filed by the sovereign power—by society itself," the judge said.

"I don't think any thinking person wants to see anything happen to labor unions insofar as their raising their standards of living is concerned.

"The defendants say they have done nothing. That amounts to saying they did not obey the restraining order.

"But they say they did not have to obey the order because it was not legal. That's their position."

Mr. Hopkins then asked that the trial date be set later than Wednesday, pleading that the union only Monday had seen the government's argument. An adjournment should be ordered "in the public interest," he asserted.

Mr. Sonnett objected, citing the urgency of the strike situation.

Effects of Strike

Meanwhile the soft coal strike had these effects in the United States:

Steelworkers and factory hands by the hundreds of thousands faced layoffs because of dwindling coal piles.

A dimout more drastic than in wartime was ordered into effect in 21 states Monday, and coal burning railroads slashed passenger service 25 percent.

President Truman himself was withholding comment. In order to be free to give attention to developments, he scheduled no appointments.

Most labor leaders had arrayed themselves solidly behind the mine workers on the legal issue. A. F. L. President William Green and C.I.O. President Philip Murray denounced use of the restraining order. A. Philip Randolph, president of the A.F.L. Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, suggested a possible "general strike."

Would Outlaw Strikes

Senator J. W. Fulbright (Dem., Ark.) proposed that the United States congress outlaw strikes and compel arbitration of labor disdupes in basic industries such as coal mining directly affecting the general welfare of the country.

Such machinery could be made applicable to future coal strikes if not the present walkout, Mr. Fulbright said. He said it might be applied also to enterprises such as oil, steel, transportation and public utilities.

His idea would be to ban strikes altogether in these industries and force arbitration of disputes either through a new agency set up on the pattern of the Interstate Commerce commission or through a special court, or both.

He added that the government might have to exercise regulatory powers over the industries, just as it now does over some utilities, and might have to control prices of the industries' products in order to adjust wage disputes equitably.

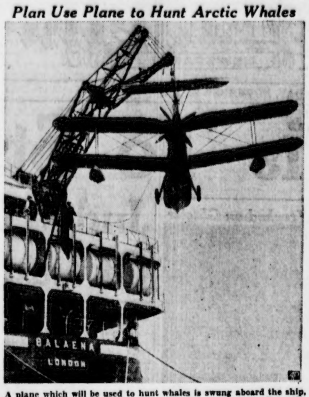
Plan Use Plane to Hunt Arctic Whales



A plane which will be used to hunt whales is swung aboard the ship, Balaena, at Southampton, England, as the ship prepares to sail for the Arctic. The expedition hopes to add whale steaks to Britain's food stocks.

Cabinet to Guard British Parklands

By Basil Dean

LONDON — Goaded by rising resentment, the British cabinet has agreed to keep a watchful eye on requisitioning by the services for training purposes, of some of this country's most cherished beauty spots.

Great tracts of Britain's beautiful (and dwindling) open spaces were commandeered during the war for bomb ranges, tank-testing grounds and artillery ranges. Britons, jealous of what remains of the unspoiled countryside, endured such invasions in interests of war effort.

But since the war, the services have made it clear they propose to hang on to these requisitioned areas—which include such world-famed areas as Dartmoor, Braunton Burroughs, the Isle of Purbeck in Dorset, Ashdown forest, Sussex, and land around Brecon Beacon in Wales, as well as long stretches of the wild and lovely Welsh coastline and parts of the Lake district.

Cabinet Takes Control

In the house of lords, the opposition demanded a halt be called. Hitherto, the three services seem to have operated on their own initiative, taking land under wartime emergency powers whenever they felt inclined.

Criticism has been bitter. It has come not only from such watchdogs of the country's natural beauty as the Times, but also from the Labor party's own official Daily Herald. Now the cabinet has had to give ear to the complaints.

Under the assault of many angry peers, government spokesmen agreed the decision to commandeer land should be taken away from the services. It will become the direct responsibility of the cabinet itself, which is a good deal more sensitive to public opinion than the cloistered brass hats of the war office, admiralty and air ministry.

Must Keep Some

But the government is adamant on one point; some of these lands will have to remain as training grounds. The services, said War Under-secretary Lord Pakenham, cannot get along without much bigger training grounds than they had before the war.

When it was suggested the wartime example of the air training plan in Canada be followed and the bulk of peacetime training be carried out elsewhere in the Commonwealth, Lord Pakenham retorted that "on strategic grounds the government cannot accept the responsibility of stationing the regular army permanently abroad."

Tuberculosis can be totally defeated in our time, Christmas Seals play an important part in the fight.

See Less Power For India Princes

NEW DELHI, (CDN) — The Indians will take another halting step toward self-rule on Dec. 9, when, it has finally been decided, the national constituent assembly will meet here.

The Moslem league delegates will boycott the constitution-making body, at least initially, league president M. A. Jinnah is reported to have told British viceroy Lord Wavell.

In an assembly of 296 members for British India, the Moslem league controls all but five of the 80 Moslem seats.

Want Postponement

The Moslem league leader argued for a further postponement until the present Hindu-Moslem disturbances subside, but the viceroy, with the All-India Congress party's urging, confirmed the date already fixed.

Consequently, Jinnah is not expected to convene the Moslem league council, whose vote is necessary to reverse the league's assembly boycott, which was voted in Bombay last July.

Meanwhile, the ruling princes of one-fourth of the Indian people — the Rajahs — are girding for their own constituent assembly role, which may be a fight for survival.

Seek To Keep Powers

A strong team of rulers and state ministers will defend the princely position in negotiations with British-Indian elements. They must decide among other questions whether the 93 seats, reserved for the states, in the constituent assembly, will be filled by rulers nominations, by people's elections, or by a combination of both.

Already, the chamber of princes, the Maharaja's own assembly is pressing the small states to group together for a joint administration in order to build efficient units to enter the future India union.

Eclipse Some Princes

This step in itself brings an eclipse of the smaller princes. They will continue to take ample privy purses, but will give way to joint administrations in such matters as policy, higher courts, education and revenue collection.

According to the general plan, these units will compare in size and population to the present Indian provinces, as will the individual larger states, such as Hyderabad and Kashmir.

Only by taking such forward steps, the princely advisers feel, can they hope to survive the political changes of the next generation.

PRIEST SENTENCED

WARSAW, (AP) — Rev. Zygmunt Jarkiewicz, a Roman Catholic priest, Friday was sentenced to death by a regional military tribunal which convicted him of leading an underground terrorist band seeking the overthrow of the government. Father Jarkiewicz pleaded innocent.

HUGE LIQUOR PROFIT

VICTORIA, (CP)—With British Columbia's population soaring over the 1,000,000 mark and liquor sales keeping pace, the provincial government is expected to cash in more than $13,000,000 in liquor profits, a record high, for the 18-month period ended Sept. 30 last.

Schools Are Closed By Teachers' Strike

MINNEAPOLIS, (AP)— A strike of union teachers closed St. Paul's public schools Monday a few hours after an eleventh-hour offer of higher salaries had averted a similar walkout in Minneapolis.

Picket lines were established at each of St. Paul's 74 schools. The temperature was at 3 above zero.

The St. Paul teachers demand higher salaries and also ask that the city's school budget be increased $1,700,000 to provide for improved school maintenance, additional equipment and new construction.

To Limit Adoptions Canadians in U. S.

OTTAWA, (CP) — Canadian and United States welfare authorities soon will take steps to limit the number of Canadian children being placed in American foster homes, Nora Lea, assistant executive director of the Canadian welfare council, said Saturday.

Declaring "many" children were involved in trans-border adoptions, Miss Lea said Canadian institutions were violating American adoption practices in placing children from this country in U. S. homes.

TYPHOID IN GERMANY

MUNICH, Germany, (AP)—Ten Germans were dead and 310 gravely ill near here Saturday, stricken by a typhoid fever epidemic described as the most serious in United States-occupied Germany since the war ended.

WON'T PROPOSE HONORS

OTTAWA, (CP)—Canada will make no recommendations for civilian awards to Canadians in His Majesty the King's New Year list of honors, the secretary of state's department announced Friday.

STALIN SAYS "THANKS"

LONDON, (AP) — The Moscow radio said Friday Prime Minister Stalin, with other officials, had expressed "sincere gratitude" for greetings and congratulations received on the Soviet's Nov. 7 revolution anniversary.

RESCUES GRANDMOTHER

HALIFAX, (CP)—Mrs. M. C. Willman rescued her 82-year-old grandmother, Mrs. John Gibson, Friday a short time before a flash-fire destroyed their home. The fire, origin of which was undetermined, caused damage estimated at $10,000.

Belgium-Germany Smuggling Soars

BRUSSELS, (CP) — Smuggling across the Belgian-German frontier has reached an unprecedented scale, with organized gangs in fast automobiles running contraband from prosperous Belgium into the ruined reich.

British and Belgian occupation troops along the border and Belgian police are trying to cope with the trade.

Smugglers round up unrationed Belgian commodities such as tea and cigarets, and coffee which although rationed is plentiful, and sell them in Germany at fancy prices or barter them for cameras, typewriters and cars.

At night smugglers' cars roar through the border area. The frontier opposite Aachen, south from Liepen and Spa, towns like Malmedy, Bastogne and St. Vith are suspected as jumping off spots for the border runners.

Other headaches are an "invasion" of German children, who come into Belgium to beg for food, and wandering refugees from Eastern Europe who are unwilling to return home for political reasons.

"Ike" Tops Sinatra As "Most Exciting"

BOSTON, (AP)— Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, United States army chief-of-staff, is flattered to learn he is an "exciting" man.

The "Spinsters" club, 25 attractive co-eds of the Kathleen Dei school last week voted the general "the most exciting man of 1946" in connection with Frank Sinatra, no less.

4 Sect Members Fined in Quebec

QUEBEC, (CP)— Four members of the Witnesses of Jehovah sect—three men and a woman—were sentenced to maximum fines with alternative jail terms when they were found guilty Friday of disturbing the peace and illegally distributing pamphlets.

Recorder Jean Mercier in passing sentence declared the teachings of the sect were "vile and vicious, inciting to revolution against the state and the church." The pamphlets, he said, were "insulting, malicious, false and illegal."

Laurier Saumur and Gerald Barry were fined $100 with alternative of three months in jail for distributing the pamphlets. Mrs. Idola Dick-Mathieu a J. Amedee Dufour, convicted of disturbing the peace, were fined $40, or two months in jail.

GENERAL ELECTRIC
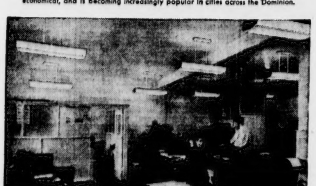
bring the benefits of electricity to industry, municipalities, commerce, farms and homes

Transportation by trolley coach, using G-E motors and controls, is clean, quiet and economical, and is becoming increasingly popular in cities across the Dominion.



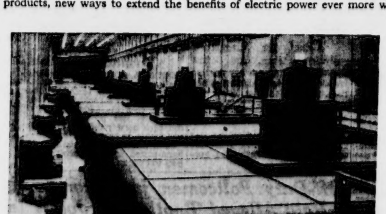
Outstanding among the benefits conferred by electricity, is plentiful high-quality light—typified by this G-E fluorescent lighting installation.

In Canada's industries many sturdy, dependable G-E motor-generator sets provide direct-current electricity for equipment—economically and efficiently.

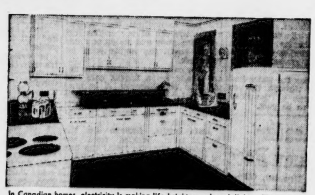
Canadians enjoy a fuller use of electric power, at a lower cost, than almost any other people in the world. To this great development Canadian General Electric has made many noteworthy contributions.

At the source of Canada's abundant supply of hydro-electric power, generators built by the Company turn the energy of the waterfalls and rivers into electricity. G-E transformers and other equipment provide electricity at the countless places where it serves you. Wherever this great Canadian asset is at work, you'll find products bearing the G-E monogram making available the benefits of the electrical way of living. Appliances that bring convenience and leisure to the home . . . better street lighting and traffic control . . . inexpensive, flexible power from electrical motors for industry . . . better illumination, air-conditioning and food preservation for stores and restaurants . . . lighter work and greater production on the farm.

Every phase of Canadian life is affected by electricity . . . today, C.G.E. is planning new products, new ways to extend the benefits of electric power ever more widely.



In central stations across Canada, generators—many of them built by Canadian General Electric—are converting the surging power of Canada's rivers and falls into abundant low-cost electricity.



In Canadian homes, electricity is making life brighter and work lighter. Illustrated is a modern, streamlined General Electric kitchen designed to save steps, save work.

Today over 120,000 Canadian farms are electrified. General Electric appliances in the home and equipment on the farm are assisting farmers and their wives with many chores.

Transformers, produced by C.G.E. help maintain the flow of electricity to the nation's busy industrial and commercial centres.

Predicts Long Coal Strike Threat to U.S. Economy

By Peter Inglis

WASHINGTON. — This capital with the flood lighting of its massive public buildings turned out; its broad avenues dimmed; the newly set-up Christmas decorations of its stores extinguished; its train services cut; its food stocks dwindling and a cold spell setting in—spent a solemn week-end mulling over what John L. Lewis has done to the United States.

Some of its conclusions, as culled from newspaper opinion and from conversation are that if the coal crisis last very long—say five weeks or more, it may have these results:

1. On the economy of the United States—Possible disaster.

This country is already undergoing what Wall Streeters politely call a "readjustment" and what is actually almost a "recession."

Because of the erratic behaviour of prices and perhaps because the psychology which brought on the post-war buying spree is ended, there has been a considerable drop in the rush for luxury goods. Sales resistance verging on a buyers' strike already has brought down prices of foodstuffs. Retailers have not yet given out any figures, but many of them report the Christmas trade as a flop compared with this time last year.

Push Prices Up?

One sure result of the coal strike and its resultant shutting down of the steel plants will be to intensify the scarcity of heavy consumer goods such as automobiles, stoves, refrigerators, and the like. In turn prices will go up further. Buying may stop completely.

Simultaneously the steel mills and the railroads have started laying off men. As the coal strike goes on, more and more industries will be forced to do likewise. During the wave of strikes in the spring of this year, laid-off workers lived off their accumulated wartime savings and buying power was maintained. It appears that this time those savings are either gone or their remnants are being hoarded against a still rainier day. This time there may be no reserve of buying power.

This, for business, can mean full-scale depression if the strike continues long enough.

Possible Social Unrest

2. On social pressures in the United States—possible serious unrest.

The coal strike itself is just one symptom of a mood of disquiet which is spread widespread among the American people. Other symptoms are to be found in the behavior of some of the veterans' groups; in the discontented "fifty-two twenty" clubs of ex-service men living for a year on their $20-a-week jobless benefits; in the growth of race-persecute groups such as the Klan and the Columbians in the south; even in the violent expression of a desire for change contained in the election results at the start of this month.

There is social tension in this country. A depression could enormously intensify it.

May Halt Legislation

3. On the legislative program of the new congress which meets Jan. 3.

Considerable changes.

The Republicans have up to now drummed up the ideas of the immediate removal of all federal control, the slashing of the budget and the reduction of taxation by as much as 20 percent. If the strike goes on for long, all three of these aims may be frustrated.

4. On labor relations in general—adverse results.

Whatever course the government follows to break the strike, as it must, it is bound to earn antagonism from a large section of labor. The use of the courts against a union is disliked by the C.I.O. just as intensely as by the A.F.L., which Lewis now represents. Stiffer legislation to control unions and attempt to force responsibility on them—an inevitable sequel of the strike now that the country is to have a Republican congress—will bring equal resentment.

Labor Biggest Loser

Simultaneously, the strike is intensifying the distrust of organized labor, on the part of businessmen, while collar workers and the small business people.

Nobody is going to win this strike But labor may well be the biggest loser.

5. On the foreign relations of the United States;—a bad effect.

At a time when the country is making a show of unified strength in its dealings with the Soviet Union, its position is bound to be weakened by dissension at home. Even in the eyes of its friends, it is bound to lose prestige.

The coal strike will also have the physical effects of cutting down the shipment of fuel, food and machinery to the war-ravaged countries. This will not heighten the respect of those countries.

Effect on Canada

6. On Canada—inevitable repercussions.

These may include a new wave of labor unrest in the dominion, following—as such waves often have in the past—by a few months the unrest in this country.

Certainly they will be felt by the dominion's economy which is geared too closely to that of this republic to be able to divorce itself.

On a mercenary level, Canada may find itself called on to take up the slack of the United States' commitments in supplies to European countries. There was more gloom in Washington this week-end than the physical darkness of the dimout.

Two Are Killed When Airliner Crashes While Landing

The cockpit of this twin-engined United Airlines' passenger plane is almost completely demolished while the cabin is almost intact after the plane crashed at Cleveland, Ohio, airport while making a landing. Pilot F. L. Brown and Co-Pilot R. L. Arnold were killed, but none of the 17 passengers was injured seriously. Cause of the crash was under investigation.

Four Out of Five Canadians Favor Pension at 60 or 65

By Canadian Institute of Public Opinion

TORONTO, — Two in every five adult Canadians would have old-age pensions apply at 60 years. Another two in every five at 65 years. More than one-third would abolish the means test.

These are highlights of Public attitude on old-age pension provisions, as revealed by a representative sample of Canadians of voting age surveyed by the latest Gallup poll.

Earlier the institute reported evidence that Canada favors higher old-age pension rates. The latest Gallup poll asked:

"At what age do you think old-age pensions should start?"

The bulk of replies are about evenly divided between 60 years and 65 years:

Pension Age	Advocated by
50 years	2%
55 years	4
60 years	39
65 years	41
70 years	6
Miscellaneous	5
No answer; no opinion	3
	100%

The laboring-class voters and younger people tend to suggest the age of the rather than 65 in greater proportion than the business group and the people over 50.

Large city dwellers favor 60-year age slightly, while farm voters lean more to the 65-year limit.

The much-disputed issue of the means test for admission to old-age pensions receives only a slight majority approval amongst adult Canadians.

Following the above question, Gallup Poll reporters asked:

"Would you favor granting old-age pensions to everyone who reaches that age, or only to those who have no other means of support?"

The national voice is:

Pensions for	Advocated by
Everyone	34%
Only those with no means of support	58
Qualified answers	6
Undecided	2

Strongest support for the idea of nationwide retirement pensions for everyone is expressed by members of labor unions and by adherents of the C.C.F. party.

Preventing Wars Said Only Defence

OTTAWA, (CP)—A blunt warning that Canadian cities will be destroyers and thousands of Canadians killed in attacks by the dreaded atomic bomb in the next war was sounded Friday by Dr. O. M. Solandt of Toronto, youthful director-general of defence research for the armed forces.

Calling for the elimination of war as the only defence against the atomic bomb, Dr. Solandt said in an address Canadians "must face the fact that should there be another war we will be bombed and that people will be killed."

He stressed he was not suggesting "we are going to bombed immediately" but he did want to warn "war is possible and we must be ready for war."

Solandt said the "only possible defence" against either atomic or biological warfare was to stop war. There was no doubt that "we could fight it and probably win" but there would be "terrible destruction." The best defence would be to try to stop war itself.

He told of the results of the first atomic bomb on the Japanese city of Hiroshima, where thousands were burned to death in the sudden, searing blast and other thousands died later from the penetrating gamma rays, and said that a similar bomb would cause only "slightly lower" casualties in a typical Canadian city.

It also was disclosed Friday the dominion's atomic energy control board is working to correlate and advance all information on the atom for the benefit of Canada and the world in general.

Under Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, the board has almost unlimited powers. It controls all materials relating to atomic energy, and may order resources and investigations or acquire any new discoveries connected with nuclear fission.

In a week, the board is to take over the atomic energy pilot plant at Chalk River, Ont. Later, it is to assume control of the Crown-owned Eldorado Mining and refining company in the Northwest Territories, one of the world's great sources of uranium.

Sees Soviet Engaged In 'War of Nerves'

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Louis F. Budenz, a former Communist leader in the U.S., told a congressional committee Friday that the Soviet government "is engaged in a war of nerves against the United States" that "could go to military conflict."

Budenz testified in a hearing by the house of representatives committee on un-American activities that the purpose of the campaign is to "undermine" the U.S. government.

A native of Indianapolis, the 55-year-old Budenz now is an assistant professor of economics at Fordham university.

To Ask Universal Training in Army

WASHINGTON, (AP)—War Secretary Patterson said in a speech Friday the war department would urge the new congress approve universal military training as "a compelling 'must'" because of the atom bomb.

Naval Design Ready For Atom Warfare

BALTIMORE, (AP) — Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Chief of United States naval operations, said "we already know the direction which naval design will take to combat" atomic bombs.

In an address, Admiral Nimitz said the navy neither ignores nor underestimates the bomb, but that the bomb has not made the navy obsolete.

"Although it is too early for us to evaluate the results of the tests which have been conducted, we already know the direction which naval design will take to combat it," he said.

ARREST FINNISH CHIEF

HELINSKI, (AP) — Police Thursday arrested Gen. Ilmarki Karhu, chief of the Finnish general staff, in connection with hiding weapons. With his arrest all the consecutive chiefs of the Finnish general staff since the armistice with Russia have been arrested for the same reason.

C. C. F. Supports Parity Price Bids

CALGARY, (CP)—Efforts to obtain parity prices and the setting up of a fact-finding board on parity were endorsed by the Alberta C.C.F. in a resolution at its convention Friday, but specific mention of the Alberta Farmers' Union, which recently sponsored a farm delivery strike to gain those ends, was deleted from the original motion.

Mayor Adday of Edmonton and others said the C.C.F. should not tie itself to any f rm organization, any labor congress or any political party in any country.

Henry Young of Millet led an attack on the federal government's handling of the recent espionage case, and on the way "the press and the radio" had "convicted" the accused long before there were any hearings.

"I have no brief for the guilty," said Mr. Young, "but we can't condone the way they were treated. You've got to go back to the time of King Charles I to find a parallel to the way Mackenzie King handled parliament in January of 1940, but not since the time of King John has there been the like of the way he handled these people in the espionage case. Nobody is safe if this can go on in Canada."

Deleting a reference to the current Polish immigrants, the convention opposed group settlement of any immigrants.

Among the three foreign affairs resolutions carried was one asking all C.C.F. members, officials and elected representatives to counteract "a most poisonous campaign of warmongering and unjustified attacks on the Soviet Union" in the press of Canada.

After opposition from Clifford Lee of Edmonton, who insisted it was "obviously impractical," the convention defeated a resolution calling for compulsory marking of the cost to the retailer on all goods.

Traffic Officer For Trade Named

OTTAWA, (CP)—Appointment of William J. Fisher as an area traffic officer in Canada's foreign trade service was announced Friday by Trade Minister MacKinnon.

Mr. Fisher will act as liaison officer with other government departments on transportation problems, internal and external, as they affect Canada's export and import trade. He will also represent the department of trade and commerce on the inter-departmental committee on telecommunications and free port areas.

Britain Proposes New Food Scheme

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Britain has proposed a new world food plan—a modification of previous proposals by Sir John Boyd Orr—calling for stockpiling of food surpluses on a national, rather than international, level.

Harold Wilson, head of the British delegation to food talks here, explained the plan provides for commodity agreements on a multi-nation basis by specific products, instead of the overall international program suggested by Sir John, head of the world food agency.

C·C·M· LAMINATED HOCKEY STICKS (PATENTED)

TOUGH BLADE — HICKORY WEDGE — LAMINATED HEEL — STIFF HANDLE

That is why the boys who score on most teams pack that extra "umph" with a C.C.M. Laminated Hockey Stick — it's "The Scorer's Stick". And C.C.M. were the originators of high grade laminated hockey sticks over 12 years ago and are still the best.

Here are some of the features which make the C.C.M. Laminated such a favorite:

THE BLADE — Gets most of the rough play of hockey, is made from carefully selected and seasoned straight-grain, second growth rock elm which is noted for its tenacious fibrous structure and its ability to withstand shock and abuse.

THE HANDLE — Made of tough, straight-grain ash or of laminated hardwoods, the handle of the C.C.M. Laminated Hockey Stick is made to stand up to the slugging, checking and shooting a stick gets in any hockey game.

LAMINATED HEEL — This is where the C.C.M. gets its great strength and liveliness. The Heel is a lamination of five layers of wood bonded permanently together with moistureproof glue. Two of these laminations are the dovetail of the blade, two are the dovetail of the handle and the four are further reinforced by C.C.M.'s patented construction with hickory wedge. At this point of lamination the ice-lays of the sticks are set and cannot change.

ICE-LAY — Hockey players vary in size, height and in their method of stick handling and so—C.C.M. Laminated Hockey Sticks are made in a choice of ice-lays.

If you are going to play hockey this winter equip yourself with C.C.M. Laminated Hockey Sticks in the ice-lay that suits you best.

What Rejection Costs

Under the terms of the five-year taxation agreement which the Dominion Government offered to make with the Government of Alberta, this province would receive a minimum grant of $15 per head of population each year that the agreement was to run. This was the lowest figure that could apply, and the grant would increase with the increase of national production. Thus in 1947 it would be $17 per head.

This grant, together with the regular statutory allowances would make up a total of $12,500,000 payable next year from the federal to the provincial treasury. The payments for the present year, calculated under the wartime tax agreement, amount to $8,200,000. The proposal was therefore that the Dominion make the province a grant of $5,100,000 next year over and above the present subsidies, and a corresponding amount in each of the four subsequent years.

This sum the Provincial Government declines to accept. Also, by rejecting the offer it will lose next year the $5,800,000 per year now paid to the province under the wartime agreement. Thus in order to obtain the revenue which it would have received next year under the federal offer, the Provincial Government will have to raise $10,900,000 by additional taxation.

Assuming that the Dominion now collects within Alberta the whole of the $5,800,000 paid to the province under the present agreement, this means that the provincial authority will next year have to extract from the earnings of the people of Alberta $5,100,000 more than is now being taken from them by provincial and federal taxation combined, and a corresponding sum in each of the four following years.

That is, if the Government of the province is to have to spend on roads, schools, hospitals and other facilities and services as much money as it would have obtained under the offer made by the Dominion.

A Code of "Don'ts"

Three persons have been killed on Edmonton streets in nine days. If fatalities continued at that rate more than 100 persons would be dead at the end of a year as the result of street accidents. That will not of course happen, but the calculation shows how terrible this casualty rate is.

It is the duty of the police to investigate all such occurrences, and of the courts to affix blame and impose punishment where this is due. For the public the moral is obvious. Not enough care is being shown by people in using the streets. Nothing but greater caution can be depended upon to cut down the rate of killings. Laws and official action can only do so to the extent that they make people conscious of this need of caution.

When street safety is mentioned, or the lack of it, the motorist is commonly blamed as the party who makes streets unsafe. But he is not altogether responsible. Pedestrians must share the blame. They do not always show respect for either law or good sense. Sometimes they act as though they thought it was primarily the business of the driver of a vehicle to keep from running them down. That is not the case. Responsibility in the first instance rests upon the pedestrian to take care of himself. If he forgets that he is liable to pay for the mistake with his life.

There are a number of "don'ts" which the pedestrian would be wise to translate into a set of commandments for his own guidance and protection. A complete list of these would be column-long, for the ways in which a person on foot can risk his life on the streets are almost numberless. But a few may be cited, because they indicate the most common disregard for personal security:—

1. Don't jay-walk. Motorists do not expect to have to dodge pedestrians in the middle of a block.

2. Don't pass in front of a standing street car, bus or motor car unless certain that it will remain standing. The driver can only see in one direction at once, and he may be looking some other way.

3. Don't take for granted that the driver of an approaching car is sober, sensible, and has brakes that will work. If in doubt give him the right of way.

4. Don't try to save time by taking risks. Even a line-up for stockings or chewing gum isn't that important. And nobody saves time if he or she winds up in the hospital or the cemetery.

5. Don't pay any attention to the fool spectator who thinks it is cowardly to play safe. He can't restore life, and won't pay for broken limbs.

A few simple rules such as these, if observed consistently, will do a good deal to lessen the hazards of pedestrians on the streets. Incidentally, if they do not even save his life, they will relieve the foot-traveller of needless anxiety and heart-straining dashes to get out of danger.

A Job for the U.N.O.

Mr. Sumner Welles has added his support to the view that the problem of Palestine is properly a problem of the United Nations, not of one country or of two or three. He speaks with the authority of experience and judgment gained in a long term as a high official in the foreign affairs department of the United States. That should recommend his advice to the Assembly delegates now meeting on Long Island.

The basic facts are sufficiently clear. The Balfour Note said Britain "favors" the establishment in Palestine of a recognized homeland for the Jewish people, with due safeguards for the rights of the Arab population. The Note did not say that Britain would undertake lone-handed to bring about this arrangement.

Governments and peoples other than those of Britain also "favor" the homeland idea. But the others are not doing anything about it. Worse still, they chip in occasionally with official advice or newspaper comment which aggravates the situation, sharpens the race discord, and stimulates the disorder.

That is not fair, to Britain, to the Jews, nor to the Arabs. And it certainly is not making for world peace. Exactly the contrary. Nero fiddling while Rome burned is the historic parallel to the course of powerful countries which stand aloof while one power struggles to handle a situation which could easily start a general conflagration—a situation for which it is no more responsible than the others.

The Big Four have made no move to put this responsibility where it belongs, on the doorstep of the United Nations organization. The Assembly should do this, and do it with no more delay.

No Favors Allowable

Having one day cleared the way for framing the peace treaty with Italy, Mr. Molotov the next day threw up another roadblock. Yugoslavia, he said, should be given some special economic favors in Trieste, the area which is to be internationalized.

There is a suggestion that this is only a tactical manoeuver and Moscow may not really stand out for the concession asked. That is to be hoped, because insistence would either prolong the already long-drawn controversy or do it at the expense of a dangerous compromise.

If Trieste is to be made an international area it should be given this standing absolutely, with no country having any more rights there than any other. What happened in Danzig is very much to the point, and not to be forgoten.

To give either Italy or Yugoslavia extraterritorial claims in the new internationalized zone would invite a repetition of the Danzig tragedy. Such claims can too easily be made the basis for diplomatic and racial propaganda, and thus expand out of all semblance to the original intent. Neither Italy nor Yugoslavia is to be trusted to not take advantage of an opportunity of that kind.

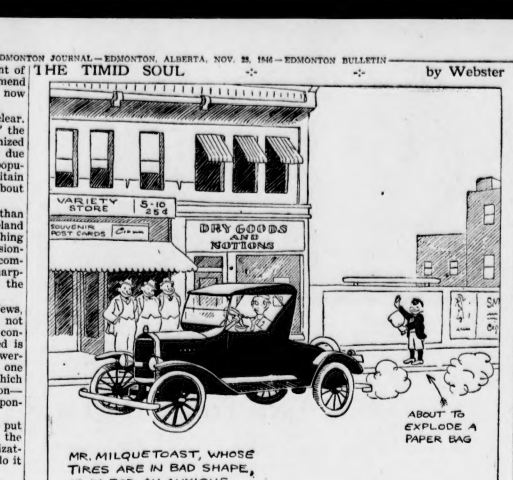
THE TIMID SOUL — by Webster



Last Black Spot

By Elmore Philpott

The most fundamental fact of all these troubled times is that the "white" man is losing his job as self-appointed overlord of the darker-skinned races.

If you represent the whole human family by the fingers on your one hand two of those fingers have won their freedom only in the past few years. The third is just now at the point of doing so.

China is far from being a great power in the sense that the U. S., Russia and Britain are. But wherever China was, until recently, just one gigantic colony of western powers, she is now free to work out her own destiny. Nor can all the tragedy of the communal clash in India obscure the truly titanic fact that that ancient land now gets a free seat in the front ranks of the mighty peoples of the earth.

After months of argument Indonesia gets the substance of political freedom. That means that mighty area represented within another year or two another in the United Nations by its own representatives.

Java alone is equal in population to Great Britain. Java is only part of the new Indonesian Republic. Anybody can see what a massive shift of political power is taking place.

* * *

ACTUALLY the "white" man is pale gray. Our North American Redmen possessed the gift of expression more than any other people. They aptly called us "pale-faces."

The paleface attained his temporary overlordship of mankind only for a few centuries; and then only because of accidents of history. Paleface had gunpowder and artillery. Paleface had ships. Paleface stumbled on to vast, previously unknown continents. These things—coinciding with the industrial and mechanical revolutions—made paleface undisputed boss man of all the earth.

It is curious to think of how the other races have won back their freedom from paleface's temporary ascendancy. Japan, the yellow skinned peoples—Japan and China. Now the brown-skinned peoples are beginning the same process. One does not need to be a prophet or the son of a prophet to see that the process is working around to the last-to-be liberated continent—Africa—worst black spot on freedom.

* * *

THE MOST SIGNIFICANT development of the present UN Assembly is the fight over South West Africa. Even before the aged Smuts had given the Assembly the choice of "like it or lump it—we are going to take it" this issue dominated behind the scenes conversation.

If South Africa were itself a country where there was no racial discrimination you could make out a good argument for outright annexation of this Southern area. But it adjoins South Africa and annexation is a logical development economically.

But South Africa is racially one of the most backward countries. The blacks and Hindus are openly, flagrantly treated as inferiors. It would be an exaggeration to say they have no rights. It would be equally untrue to deny that the whole set up of the country is based on "white supremacy"—the social, political and economic overlordship of a minority which happens to have "white" skins.

* * *

SURELY THE ASSEMBLY is right to do everything in its power to prevent any extension—in time or area—of the system of racial degradation. The Charter itself clearly sets forth certain basic human rights. Among these is equality of rights between sexes and all races.

It is true that not a single one of the big powers would be eligible to remain in UN if all were expelled whose internal or international relationships violated one or other noble principle of that Charter.

But there is a vast difference between admitting imperfections which are heritages of past mistake and evils and creating new evils by wrong policies sanctioned now.

The Day of Reckoning

By J. H. Gray

OTTAWA: It took more than a decade to reach a final settlement of relief debts of the western provinces to the Dominion. That in itself was an indication there was something more to the relief question than met the eye.

One reason settlement was so delayed was the difficulty in finding an equitable formula. The formula now adopted is admitted to be rough justice and little more.

The problem arose from the collapse during the worst of the depression of the credit of the western provinces. Unable to tax the vast sums required, and unable to borrow from private investors, the provinces turned to the Dominion for aid. Before the tide turned, these borrowings in the aggregate topped $180,000,000.

The approximate breakdown between the provinces was:

Manitoba	$24,760,000
Saskatchewan	97,406,000
Alberta	26,238,000
B. C.	34,467,000

* * *

RELIEF COSTS accounted for about half the borrowings of Manitoba, Alberta and British Columbia. Saskatchewan's relief costs were about $61,000,000 plus certain amounts representing capitalized interest on relief borrowings. The balances in all provinces was made up of borrowings to repay maturing debentures plus, in the case of Saskatchewan, seed grain loans.

A case could be made for cancellation of relief debts. It was more difficult to argue that the debts incurred to pay off maturing securities should be also cancelled. But what was a relief debt?

No two provinces organized their borrowings in exactly the same manner. The borrowing from the Dominion might be accurately described as the balancing item in budgets.

* * *

SUPPOSE, for example, this happened: Province A and Province B both had $3,000,000 in bonds coming due. Both needed $3,000,000 that year for relief. Add the items together and $6,000,000 were required. Province A took $3,000,000 from its general revenue funds and paid off its bonds. It borrowed $6,000,000 from the Dominion charged to relief. Province B borrowed $3,000,000 from the Dominion on relief account and another $3,000,000 on repayment account. In this hypothetical case both borrowed the same amount from the Dominion at the same time for the same purposes.

Under the debt settlement formula Province A will be forgiven half the $6,000,000 but Province B will be forgiven half the $3,000,000. That, on its face, is unfair. But what is the alternative? From every practical approach there is none. All that the Dominion can do is take the notations on treasury bills at face value. To go behind these notations and try to discover precisely where all the money went would be a practical impossibility. It would require batches of accountants working in relays for years to unscramble these bookkeeping eggs.

Cancellation of the relief debts of the western provinces, in part, recognizes special circumstances. But some other sections could claim just as forcefully for special treatment. New Brunswick, for example, Canada's least favored province, had a desperate time during the depression. New Brunswick, however, managed to navigate without special borrowing from the Dominion. Here then, is one paradox—one of Canada's wealthiest provinces—British Columbia—is relieved of a substantial burden of relief debt while its poorest province — New Brunswick — gets no relief.

And what about unfunded city debt for relief? That was borrowed in the main from the banks. Many municipalities went into bankruptcy. And if any deal is made, who gets the money? The current taxpayers, or the...holders who lost so heavily by the defaults? If the latter, which of the literally scores of categories?

* * *

NOR DOES IT END HERE. Canadians are Canadians, whether they live in Calder, Estevan or Antigonish. Many eastern communities went through terrible trials. On the very good principle of equality of citizenship they can make claims in equity.

All such claims must be directed to the provinces. The Dominion has taken the stand from the beginning that it can treat only with provinces. The affairs of the municipalities are exclusively the responsibility of the provinces. Each province is left with the responsibility of settling with its own municipalities. That, in the nature of things Canadian, is the way it has to be.

TOO MANY CENSORS

New York Times

The amount of censorship still going on in the world is disheartening. Hardly a nation seems to be free of it. Sweden found it necessary to require a date line "somewhere in Sweden" when reporters some time ago were writing of mysterious unidentified "missiles". Censors in Portugal considered it hazardous to public welfare for its people to know that Indian nationalists were reported to have put in a claim to Portuguese Goa.

Press censorship in Palestine forged the people in that country to read newspapers from Egypt to get the facts about the Jewish exodus from Europe.

American censorship a month ago suppressed Henry Wallace's speech for two days in Japan, permitting it only to be said, for many hours, that he had "made an important political announcement". This folly was based, presumably, on a clause forbidding articles about "dissensions among the Allies". There have been other instances of dubious wisdom in use of the occupational blue pencil on the Japanese press.

SHOULD DO BETTER

London Free Press

Canadian highways compare unfavorably with American highways, and the same criticism applies to many of our restaurants. We lack the business and the money to build the super-highways they have below the border, and a certain parochialism may have tended to make us feel satisfied with the majority of eating places we possess, but we live beside a wealthy neighbor, given to travel, and we should develop sufficient salesmanship to put up our unquestioned products in an attractive package.

TWO NOTICES

British United Press

A notice was posted on the press bulletin board of United Nations at Lake Success asking correspondents to refrain from posing as delegates to get automobile rides from Lake Success to New York.

A little later, another notice appeared on the board. It asked delegates to stop posing as reporters to get into committee meetings to which they are not invited.

The Road Ahead

By Harper Prowse, MLA

The Financial Post recently predicted the possibility of an early easing of rent controls. This may bring great comfort to regular readers of that rather stodgy journal. It will certainly bring no joy to millions of Canadians if the prediction proves to be true.

There is no reason why rental controls should be eased. It might be fair to provide re-adjustments in certain individual cases but even this would be a dangerous policy. I thought at first that it might be fair to provide for a re-adjustment based on the "ability to pay" of tenants. But this would be a great folly, for it would mean that landlords would try to get rid of low-paid tenants in order to get better-paid tenants so that they could ask for upward revision of their rents.

The Post states that "Gordon is fully aware of the plight of landlords; is conscious of the fact that they, as a class, and almost alone of other Canadian producers, have had no price relief whatever since the introduction of the Ceiling in 1941." When one considers that landlords were not afflicted by excess profit taxes, that they have not had to carry any vacancies, and that the usual return on most properties runs 12 to 14 per cent annually and more in some cases I don't see that they have suffered too much.

* * *

I HAVE HAD certain cases brought to my attention where individual landlords have had their rentals held at an unfairly low figure - due to the fact that rentals imposed to permit relief to needy tenants were frozen at that figure. But such cases are so rare that I doubt if the provincial total would run to more than could be counted on the fingers of two hands.

It is argued that there must be relief rental control or investors will be unwilling to build new houses to rent. This is, of course, just so much more bunk. We have neither materials nor the labor sufficient to permit the building of the homes necessary for the various government-sponsored projects or for private owners to live in themselves. And at any event the few recently constructed homes which have been offered for rent have had the rents fixed at prices which no landlord could possibly consider as unsoundly low.

* * *

THE PEOPLE who need homes are those in the low-income groups, which includes the bulk of veterans. These people are having troubles enough right now trying to meet rents and the high cost of living out of meagre salaries. To raise their rents would work increased hardships on a class of people we should be trying to help, not knock down.

Unfortunately it is the big landlords, with their head offices in Montreal and Toronto, who are in a best position to get the ear of the government. They have the lobbies and the means of bringing pressure to bear. It is up to the rest of us who are not so fortunate to work in every legitimate way we can to see that these selfish individuals don't succeed.

The Labor Rebellion

By Frank B. Walker

LONDON: Twas a strange scene in Commons when the House divided on a rebel amendment to the speech from Throne. Not a soul moved towards Ayes. Instead seventy Labor members held their seats.

The final tally was three hundred sixty five to none but this is only half the story. More than one hundred members of the Labor party abstained on this crucial vote. There have been few criticisms against members of one's own party more vigorous than that levelled by Mr. Tom O'Brien against the back bench socialists who challenged Ernest Bevin's foreign policy. Mr. O'Brien called rebels, "moral assassins", "a shamefaced set of sham fighters", and "a contemptible coterie of comintern lickspittles".

* * *

THESE WOULD BE harsh words directed against an opposition party. They are particularly so against members of one's own party.

Even Mr. Attle turned on the rebels and compared the contribution of some of them with Mr. Bevin's. He found it as "dust in the balance".

But though the rebels represent, as the Manchester Guardian points out "the depths of illiberalism into which Marxian and quasi-Marxian ideology have dragged sections of Labor", they represent also a large section of the people of Britain who are fearful of the present trend in international relationships.

Mr. Crossman, moving an amendment, asked three questions and these are the crux of the rebel position. First, would the government disavow the Anglo-American alliance outlined in Mr. Churchill's Fulton speech? Mr. Attlee did. Second, was the government agreed to the standardization of arms and equipment between America and Britain? Mr. Attlee was not as definite here. He said standardization was extremely difficult and could only be under the security arrangements Britain was endeavoring to make through United Nations. Third, were staff conversations now proceeding between Britain and America? Surely, Mr. Attlee said, people realized Britain suit maintained joint occupation with United States in parts of Europe.

* * *

PERHAPS THE BEST summing up of the government's foreign policy was again that of The Manchester Guardian:

"With all its defect the government seems to be applying international socialist and liberal principles as most people have understood them with more conspicuous logic and certainly with more common sense than its critics".

Provincial Paper Criticizes Tass

MOSCOW, (AP) — The news agency Tass, Russia's official clearing house for domestic and international news, has been criticized sharply for failure to furnish timely, well-written news stories to the Soviet provincial press.

The criticism came from an editor of a small town newspaper, in a letter to his party newspaper, Culture and Life. The letter complained that the Tass International reviews "do not give readers a complete and consistent picture of events abroad."

Lack of Workers Serious in Britain

LONDON, (CP) — Shortage of manpower for armed forces and industry is Britain's biggest problem on the road to national recovery.

Manpower, like finances, will be "budgeted" next year.

"The danger is not lack of work but lack of people," said the Spectator.

This is why:

1. The total working population, at about 20,000,000 is approximately the same as in 1939.

2. Compared with 480,000 just before the war, there are about 1,500,000 in the forces, and almost 500,000 ex-servicemen still have not taken jobs.

3. The 1,344,000 workers engaged in manufacture for export—an urgent need if Britain is to be able to buy raw materials and foodstuffs abroad—exceed the prewar total by 45 percent.

4. Civil service and municipal employes number 1,825,000 against 1,358,000.

5. The swollen capital goods industries have some 750,000 more employes than in 1939.

6. Continuation of conscription in peacetime will draw young men from industry and advancing the school-leaving age from 14 to 16 under the new education act will keep two years' crop of new workers out of the labor market.

In wartime, men and women could be directed into important work but almost all controls now have been lifted. Where the worst shortages exist, wages and working conditions are not good enough to attract labor in competition with more pleasant occupations.

3,000 Children Greet Santa in Edmonton

Three thousand Edmonton children—babes-in-arms, toddlers and school children of all ages—vociferously and hilariously welcomed the C. Woodward Ltd., Santa Claus to Edmonton Saturday morning at a special children's party at the Capitol theatre. The theatre was filled twice to capacity, with approximately 1,500 children for each show, gaily shouting their welcome to Santa and acknowledging that they had been "good children" during the past year, deserving of Santa's bounty at Christmas time.

Mickey Mouse, Popeye, Pluto, Raggedy Ann and Tom and Jerry pre-viewed the visit of Santa, in half-a-dozen colored motion pictures shown to the children before Santa Claus arrived.

Greeting each movie "short" with loud-voiced enthusiasm, the children giggled and shouted at the mercy pranks of their favorite "movie stars."

Santa Is Welcomed

But enthusiasm reached its peak at the advent of Santa Claus himself, laughing and jolly, as he roared his greetings to the accompaniment of sleigh bells, and burst into the dimly-lighted theatre.

A huge throne was placed on the stage, and here Santa Claus received the plaudits of his admiring public. Speaking to them, he asked if they had all been good children—especially to their mothers and well-behaved at school.

To the last child, each had been a model of behavior all during the year. That is the story they told Santa Claus.

One bright-eyed girl shouted, "Where is your sleigh?" across the tumult of excited children. Santa Claus was not to be caught for an answer. "I took the sleigh and reindeer to Woodward's, as soon as I arrived from the North Pole," he said, "and hurried down here to meet you."

Stage Is Crowded

Soon the stage was crowded with youngsters all eager to tell Santa their wants for Christmas. Boys wanted electric trains, skates, wagons, skis, and things that "worked by engines," while girls professed their traditional preferences—dolls, doll carriages doll furniture and other articles necessary to the proper bringing up of a little girl.

Toys will be in greater supply this year than any year during or immediately after the war.

Even before the first show had ended, another queue of children outside were eagerly awaiting their turn to see Santa Claus.

It was a great day, 3,000 Edmonton children agreed, as, after the morning shows, they repaired to Woodward's, where a reception was held for them, Santa Claus again holding the centre of the stage. Here small gifts and a Fish Pond were highlights for the children.

JACK STRACHAN RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT ALBERTA SOCCER

CALGARY, Nov. 25-(CP)-Jack Strachan, Edmonton, to whom tribute was paid for doing a fine job in many past seasons, was re-elected president of the Alberta Soccer Association Saturday at the annual meeting in the Alexandra hotel.

Charlie Pinnell of Calgary was unanimous choice for re-election as secretary - treasurer with Bill Lawson, Calgary, named first vice-president, Hugh Baker, Edmonton, second vice-president and Joe Fish, Calgary, third vice-president.

THE PRESIDENT'S report was well received. He gave a brief record of the season's working, and was pleased to state that Edmonton had made a splendid comeback after a prolonged absence from the game. The final game at Edmonton drew the largest gate for years.

The financial statement showed the association in good standing and secretary Charlie Pinnell was complimented on the way he conducted the financial end.

Next season the senior body will have jurisdiction of the Alberta Junior association, to eliminate the misunderstandings which occurred in last season's cup final.

THE OLD COUNTRY association has published coaching manuals, it was learned, and the Alberta group has offered a dozen as help to the junior clubs.

The 1949 general meeting will be held in Edmonton.

Following is the full slate of office bearers:

Honorary president, R. J. Chiswick: honorary vice presidents, D. E. Black and Ward Steckle; president, Jack Strachan, Edmonton; vice-president, W. J. Lawson, Calgary; second vice-president, Hugh Baker, Edmonton; third vice-president, Joe Fish, Calgary; secretary-treasurer, Charlie Pinnell, Calgary; auditor, Tom Connelly, Calgary; executive members, Jack Snowden, Calgary, and Tom Green Edmonton.

Lethbridge Sextet Jumps to 2nd Place

LETHBRIDGE, Nov. 25 (CP) — Lethbridge Maple Leafs advanced to second place in the Western Canada Senior Hockey League Saturday night when they skated off home ice with a 9-3 victory over Regina Capitals.

Although the weather was unfavorable for a large turn-out some 2,200 Lethbridge fans watched a wide-open hockey game in which Harrison and Negrello scored two goals each for the winners. Other Lethbridge marksmen were Hall, Fisher, Juckes, and Kaplan. Bill Snider netted two goals for Regina, the other Regina goal being scored by Ted Rheaul.

IN THE FIRST frame Regina opened the scoring at 12:03 when Snider took a pass from Rheault and poked the puck behind Young. Thirty-two seconds later Hall tied the score and Negrello put Lethbridge in the lead at 17:44. Lethbridge dominated the play in the second period, Negrello picking up his second goal before the clock had reached the one minute mark.

JOE FISHER scored one of the neatest goals of the year when he skated around the defence, faking out Emil Francis and sliding the puck underneath him. Love ended the scoring of the period at 17:55 when he converted a penalty for the fifth Lethbridge goal. During the third period Lethbridge slamming in goals while Regina tallied twice. Harrison, Juckes, and Fisher drove the puck home before Snider netted his second goal of the evening on a pass from Hauck. Rheault scored the last Regina goal at 19:15 with only ten seconds remaining in the game. Latoski combined with Harrison and Hall for Lethbridge.

Lethbridge's next game will be on home ice when they play host to the Calgary Stampeders.

FIRST PERIOD: 1—Regina, Snider (Rheault) 12:03; 2—Lethbridge, Hall (Latoski, Negrello) 12:35; 3—Lethbridge, Negrello (Van Dacle, Hall) 17:03. Penalties—none.

SECOND PERIOD: 4—Lethbridge, Negrello (Latoski) :42; 5—Lethbridge, Fisher (McCaine) 8:34; 6—Lethbridge, Love (Fisher) 9:18.

Penalties—Stasseon, Edwards, Juckes, Souper.

THIRD PERIOD: 7—Lethbridge, Harrison (Fisher, Grey) 3:41; 8—Lethbridge, Juckes (Fisher) 8:45; 9—Regina, Snider (Hauck) 12:40; 10—Lethbridge, Harrison (Latoski) 14:26; 11—Regina, Rheault (McCullough) 19:15; 12—Lethbridge, Latoski (Hall, Harrison) 19:50.

Penalties—none.

Stage Comeback To Halt Beaches By 22-12 Score

TORONTO, Nov. 25 (CP) — The tide that bore Balmy Beach to the eastern Canada football final flowed and broke here Saturday and the swift - striking Argonauts came from behind for a 22-12 victory that once again swept the Dominion champions into the all-Canadian final with the west.

For nearly 30 minutes, Beaches appeared headed for next Saturday's date with Winnipeg Blue Bombers, whom Argos whipped 25-6 last year, until Argo power struck for two touchdowns and a placement as Argo defence became rock-like.

FROM THE outset, the clash of two Toronto rivals for top military runs deeper than the playing field severed drama to the varsity stadium crowd of nearly 20,000 bursting back the opening kick-off. Joe Krol was crashed to the ground, arose limping as Balmies drew a 15-yard roughing penalty.

In this play was set the tempo of the game, for the star of Argonauts' march to their interprovincial union championship never left the field as he shook off effects of the hurt and went on to 60 minutes of outstanding service.

THE ARGOS, like Krol, withstood a Beach battering that put them behind 12-6, tied that score with a converted touchdown three plays before half time.

Flashiest Argonaut was Royal Copeland, big blond speedster whose two touchdowns included a brilliant catch of a forward pass to lift Argos level. Bruising Byron Bunny crashed for their opening major and Krol kicked three converts and a single besides his placement.

BOBBY PORTER, who fired the Beach to upset ORFU playoff victories over Toronto Indians and Hamilton Wildcats, paced their two second-quarter touchdown drives. Big Johnny Lake and speedy Bob Cunningham cracked over for the scores with Lake converting one and also kicking the only point of the opening quarter.

The statistics tell a story of two evenly-matched clubs. Both made 13 first downs from scrimmage, with Argos gaining 315 yards and Balmies 312. The Argos rode their vaunted forward pass route for 182 of these yards, completing 17 of 26 with none intercepted. Beach rolled for 162 along the ground.

THE CHAMPIONS intercepted three Beach forwards, but the Balmies made up for this by recovering four of Argos' seven fumbles, while losing their own two miscues to the opposition. Even on punting, Krol fell behind Beach hoofers with 10 punts averaging 43.6 yards a kick compared with 42.7, although Argo halves raced the ball back 73 yards against 73.

FIRST QUARTER: 1—Balmy Beach, single (Bennington on Lake's kick); 2.

SECOND QUARTER: 2—Argonauts, touchdown (Copeland); 3—Argonauts, convert (Krol); 4—Balmy Beach, touchdown (Cunningham); 5—Balmy Beach, touchdown (Lake); 6—Balmy Beach, convert (Lake). 7, Argonauts, touchdown (Copeland); 8, Argonauts, convert (Krol).

THIRD QUARTER: 9 — Argonauts, placement (Krol).

FOURTH QUARTER: 10—Argonauts, single (Ford rouged on Krol's kick); 11—Argonauts, touchdown (Copeland); 12—Argonauts, convert (Krol).

LA Ramblers Cop Sixth Straight

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25 -(AP)— Los Angeles Ramblers won their sixth straight hockey game in the western international league last night by whipping the Spokane Spartans, 8-3.

The Ramblers scored four times in one minute and 40 seconds of the third period to clinch the game. Benny Hayes scored two goals and had three assists. The Ramblers also beat Spokane Saturday night, 6-3.

Houston 9-0

CAP LEADERS: Chuck McCullough (right) and Toby Brown are the current scoring leaders for Regina Capitals who play Flyers here tonight. McCullough has a total of 13 points, made up of 6 goals and 7 assists, while Brown has potted 4 pucks and helped in 6 more tallies. McCullough is a former Notre Dame junior. Both are with Caps and will be in the lineup tonight.

Kreller With Flyers Against Caps Tonight

Regina Capitals, making their first visit of the season to Edmonton, are in the city for tonight's Western Canada Hockey League game against Flyers scheduled to start in the arena at 8:30 o'clock.

Flyers and Capitals have met only once so far this year, Bill Hunter's club taking a 3-2 overtime decision at Regina on Nov. 6.

MANAGER-COACH Rilley Mullen stated last night he was expecting Elmer Kreller to play at least part of the Regina game and that he would be starting at wing on a line with Billy Maher at centre and Bing Merluk on the right boards.

Johnny Black will probably be ready for Lethbridge here next Saturday, which would still leave at least two of the Edmonton team's injury list — Alex Pringle and Freddy Smitten.

SMITTEN was having a look while the Flyers were working out yesterday, but he will not be in the lineup until around the New Year. Alex Pringle was doing some skating Sunday, but it is not known when he'll be able to start. The inflammation in his injured wrist his subsided and another x-ray picture was to be taken today.

Bill Pettinger will be used on defence tonight with Pug Young, Bob Solinger and Gordon Watt. For front line duty Mullen will have Kreller, Maher, Stanley, Devicq, Thomas, Newsome and Dutchak.

Rangers Score Two Week-End Victories

CHICAGO, Nov. 25 (AP) — New York Rangers scored their first win in three National Hockey League starts against Chicago this season with a monotonous 5-1 decision last night over the last place Black Hawks before 16,664 fans at Chicago stadium.

The inept Hawks who yielded one goal while a Ranger was in the penalty box, were roundly booed throughout the match which gave New York its second victory in two nights. The Rangers arrived 90 minutes late for the game from Montreal where last night they nipped the Canadiens, 3-2.

WITH FIVE different players figuring in their scoring, the Rangers broke up a 1-1 first period deadlock with two goals in each of the final two periods.

The Black Hawks took the lead for the first and only time on Bob Hamill's shot after 14 minutes, 33 seconds of the opening period. With less than two minutes of the initial period left, Grant Warwick was credited with a goal when his shot deflected off teammate Tony Leswick past Hawk goalie Paul Bibeault.

MIDWAY in the second period the Rangers went in front, 2-1, on Bryan Hextall's unassisted score. Both goals on the night left in the same period and the Hawks holding a one-man edge, Ed Laprade zipped in a nifty side shot to make it 3-1 for the Rangers. When Laprade banged home his shot, Ranger wingman Alf Pike was sitting out a roughing penalty.

In the closing period, Ab Demaco and Leswick slapped two unrelated tallies past goalie Bibault who contributed several acrobatic stops among his 26 saves, four more shots than the Rangers' Chuck Rayner cuffed down.

FIRST PERIOD. 1—Chicago, Hamill (Koleta, Smith) 14:33; 2—New York, Warwick (Leswick) 19:37.

Penalties—none.

SECOND PERIOD: 3— New York, Hextall 12:35; 4—New York, Laprade (Lesko) 18:36.

Penalties—Laycoe, Pike, Bell (10 minutes misconducts).

THIRD PERIOD: 5—New York, Demarco (Hextall, Pike) 11:30; 6—New York, Leswick (Warwick, Laprade) 13:12.

Penalties—none.

NEW YORK LEAVES NATIONAL LEAGUE CELLAR

MONTREAL, Nov. 25 -(CP)- New York Rangers, winless in their previous eight starts, lent further proof they hold the indian sign over the once-potent Montreal Canadiens Saturday night when they edged the Stanley Cup holders 3-2 for their second straight victory on Montreal ice this season.

Backed by some tight puck-stopping by goalie Chuck Rayner, the victors checked like leeches and skated on even terms with the Montrealers until Cal Gardner's third period goal lifted the New Yorkers out of the National Hockey League cellar, and disappointed 14,894 paying customers.

EACH TEAM scored single goals in each of the first two periods and remained deadlocked until the 11:45 mark of the final session when Gardner slammed home Church Russell's rebound from a scramble.

As in most of their recent games, it was Canadiens' fast-stepping Trio of Billy Reay, Leo Gravelle and George Allen that carried the mail for the Montrealers. Allen and Reay collected the Canuck markers. Other Ranger goals went to Tony Leswick and Bill Moe.

DEFENCEMAN Bill Juzda, brought up from New Haven Ramblers, Rangers farm club in the American Hockey League, was a tower of strength on the Gotham sextet's rear guard, handing out punishing body checks with abandon. He also figured in two brawls during the fixture.

He was given a major penalty for striking Maurice Richard over the head with his stick in the open-ing frame, and suffered a cut lip during a high-sticking duel with Reay in the final session for which the Montreal centre was handed a five-minute sentence for drawing blood. It was while Reay was off that Rangers scored the winning counter.

MONTREAL — Durnan; Leger, Harmon; Lech; Richard, Blake. Subs: Bouchard, Reardon, Fillion, O'Connor, Pargeter, Reay, Allen, Mondell, Peters, Gravelle.

NEW YORK—Rayner; Juzda N. Col, ville; Laprade; Warwick, Leswick. Subs: Laycoe, Trudel, Cooper, Hextall, Pike, Demarco, Russell, Bell, Moe, Gardner.

Referee—Bill Chadwick; Linesmen—Barrette and E. Munday.

FIRST PERIOD: 1—Montreal, Allen (Reay, Gravelle) 11:33. 2—New York, Leswick (Demarco) 18:47.

Penalties—Juzda (major), Reardon.

SECOND PERIOD: 3, Montreal, Reay (Harmon) 8:20; —New York, Moe 19:52.

Penalties — Fillon, Richard, Leswick.

THIRD PERIOD: 5, New York, Gardner (Russell) 11:45.

Penalties — Laycoe, Reay (major), Harmon (major), Gardner.

"EXPORT" CANADA'S FINEST CIGARETTE

CANADIANS STOP NEW METHOD 8-0

Johnny Sofiak kept the gate locked while his teammates were punching eight pucks past Bill McLennan at the opposite end of the arena Saturday night and so Canadians came up with an 8-0 shutout against New Method, the first to date in the Edmonton City League. These two clubs are now tied for the top bracket.

The 800 or so fans who visited the arena saw good hockey, for in spite of the seemingly one-sided score, Louis Holmes' New Methods were always in the game and had Canadians on the defensive for the greater part of the final period, even out-shooting them 14-8 in that session.

McLENNAN, New Method goalie, occupied the spotlight for much of the first two periods, the Canadians attacking relentlessly. Out of 15 direct drives during the initial 20 minutes, only two beat Bill, who also had to deal with 12 in the second stanza. Sofiak stopped seven shots in the first period and six during the second.

Nine Canadians shared in the distribution of points, "Red" Hammond and Bob Gray both securing a pair of goals, with singletons going to Harry Groves, "Slats" Slater, Ron Matthews, Bob Goodacre, Eddie Thomas gathered in 2 assists: Groves, Matthews, Goodacre, Norm Kirk and Doug Anderson one each.

First goal of the game came when Thomas and Hammond caught New Method with only one defenceman back, Eddie slipping a close-in pass to Hammond for the shot. Just past the half-way mark Gray beat McLennan with a 10-foot back-hander to finish off the play with Groves.

Canadians put the puck into the net again, but it was washed out. Groves being in the crease.

Harry Allen had a good chance to score for New Method just after the second period opened, but Sofiak batted the puck off his stick as Harry came in close for the shot.

A SLATER-MATTHEWS two-way drive which originated behind their own blue line, raised the count to 3-0 after five minutes of the second period and Goodacre cut in fast to whip Anderson's pass into the net midway in the session.

Thomas raised the score to 5-0 when he carried the puck almost to the goal-mouth and then slipped it to Hammond. Gray's unassisted counter, was a slider which McLennan missed when Bob Watt darted in fast and blocked the goalie's view just as Gray shot.

KLINGSPOON and Matthews were both serving penalties when Kirk got a pass out to Groves and behind the New Method net for another tally in third period. Matthews and Goodacre combined for a good goal which relieved heavy opposition pressure well along in the period.

Bill Dawe did turn on the red light late in the session, but the whistle had gone.

Sofiak stopped six shots and McLennan three out of four during the final five minutes.

NEW METHOD — McLennan; Herron, Klingspoon; Holmes, Watrin; Allen, Subs — Dawe Thomas Morgan, Gostick, Huffman, Pettinger, Lane, Fleming.

CANADIANS — Sofiak; Matthews, Gray; Kirk; Groves, Slater. Subs — Marcuson, Tossing, Hammond, Anderson, Goodacre, Lougheid, Watt.

Referee—W. Runge, Cam Smith.

FIRST PERIOD: 1-Canadians, Hammond (Thomas) 8:12; 2-Canadians, Gray (Groves) 10:50; 3-Dawe.

SECOND PERIOD: 3-Canadians, Slater (Matthews) 3:39; 4-Canadians, Goodacre (Anderson) 10:04; 5-Canadians, Gray (Thomas) 13:22; 6-Canadians, Gray (Hammond) 16:02. Penalties-Allen, Matthews Pettinger.

THIRD PERIOD: 7-Canadians, Groves (Kirk) 2:12; 8-Canadians, Matthews (Goodacre) 16:03. Penalties — Klingspoon, Matthews, Groves, Slater (2), Dawe.

Ballance Nets 4 In Seattle Win

SEATTLE, Nov. 25-(AP)-Black-haired Bob Ballance, Seattle centre, passed home all four goals last night to almost single handedly lead the Seattle Ironmen to a 4-3 triumph over the Vancouver Canucks in a Pacific Coast Hockey League contest.

Sharing the scoring spotlight with Ballance were wingmen Bill Robinson and Eddie Dunsell, the former picking up assists on all four of the Seattle counters and Dartnell aiding in three.

Girls Basketball Meeting Tuesday

Organization meeting of the Edmonton Senior Girls' Basketball League will be held at the YMCA on Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The meeting has been called by Armour Bull, district organizer for the Alberta association and a new slate of officers will likely be elected. Bob Scott, president, has left the city.

New Curlers Body Wants To Affiliate

PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 25 -(CP)- A Northwestern Ontario Curling Association, which will press immediately for affiliation with the Dominion body and the right to compete in the Macdonald Brier bonspiel for the Canadian championship, was organized at a meeting here this week-end. Frank Sargent of Port Arthur was elected president.

Pending affiliation with the Canadian Curling Association, which would lead to a challenge for the Northen Ontario championship, the association plans to stage a Northwestern Ontario champion ship event in conjunction with the annual lake-head bonspiel, to be held in the latter part of January at Fort William.

THE ASSOCIATION at present has seven members but is hopeful of raising that number to 15 or 16. Affiliated clubs are Port Arthur, Fort William, Dryden, Sleep Rock, Atikokan, Geraldton and Hornepayne.

Archie Sillers of Geraldton was elected vice-president and Tom Johnston, Port Arthur, secretary-treasurer.

SHUT-OUT: Johnny Sofiak, goalie for Canadians, marked up the first shutout in the City Hockey League when he blanked New Method Saturday night, the juniors winning 8-0.

Moose Jaw Whips Saskatoon by 9-1

MOOSE JAW, Sask., Nov. 25 -(CP)- Led by Vic Kreklewetz with five goals and one assist and Metro Prystal with one goal and five assists, Moose Jaw Canucks vanquished Saskatoon Legionaires, 9-1 here Saturday night in a Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League game.

The results placed Moose Jaw four points ahead of Regina Pats in second place and provided the third-place Legionaires with their second loss in as many nights.

New Haven Downs Springfield 4-3

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 25 -(AP)- Leading all the way, New Haven Ramblers last night edged out Springfield Indians 4-3 in a hard-fought American Hockey League battle which attracted a sell-out crowd of 4,100. Two goals and an assist by Norm Burns of the winners were a feature.

The Ramblers skated off to a two-goal lead in the first period, Mel Reed and Jack Church tallying while the Indians were shorthanded. Bill Gooden found the net for Springfield three minutes after the second session opened.

Burns slapped home Allan Kuntz's relay to give the Ramblers a 3-1 bulge, but Harry Frost retaliated from far out to keep the Indians in contention.

In the final period, Burns netted a backhand shot shortly after five minutes had elapsed. Springfield fought back and Bill Summerhill capitalized on a power play.

First in Four

MOOSE JAW, Sask., Nov. 25-(CP)-Moose Jaw Jesters chalked up their first win in four starts in the international senior basketball league when they turned back the Plentywood, Mont., entry 49-41 here Saturday.

Johnny Yonder of Moose Jaw and Kit Kitzenberg of Plentywood shared individual scoring honors with 12 points each.

Illinois and UCLA Are Rose Bowl Bound

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 (AP) — Illinois and University of California at Los Angeles won conference titles Saturday in the feature games on United States college football gridirons and became the likely participants in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1 under the "closed-shop" agreement reached earlier last week by the Big Nine and Pacific Coast Conferences.

ILLINOIS, one of two western conference schools that voted against the tie-up soared its first loop title since 1928 by lashing crippled Northwestern 20-0 while U. C. L. A. proved the superior muddler in downing Southern California 13-6, before 93,714 fans.

Michigan crushed Ohio State 58-6 and took second place in the big nine.

THE TWO GROUPS decided Wednesday to send a representative each, preferably their champion, to Pasadena Jan. 1 for the next five years. The formality of a conference vote is all that is needed to make it official in each case.

While those results all but named the Rose Bowl rivals, other games decided conference titles and embellished records of candidates for the remaining New Year's Day berths on the final big Saturday of the 1946 campaign.

GEORGIA AND GEORGIA Tech each a candidate for an invitation and each a contender for the southeast circuit flag, loafed to easy victories over minor opposition in preparation for their own meeting next week. Georgia smeared Chattanooga 48-27 with the losers getting 20 points in the final quarter. Georgia Tech mastered Furman 41-7. Mississippi State, another bowl prospect, also kept in the headlines by downing Mississippi 20-7.

Tennessee rallied for a 7-0 decision over Kentucky that ensured Jan. 1 consideration.

IN THE SOUTHERN conference, another breeding ground of bowl teams, North Carolina defeated Duke 22-7. That meant the loop title for N. C.

Penn State, one of the few eastern teams in bowl contention now that army has closed the door, was tripped by Pittsburgh 14-7, while Yale made Cornell a title possibility in the ivy league by rebuffing Harvard, 27-14. Cornell plays Penn Thursday and a victory would send the title to Ithaca. A Penn triumph means a title deadlock between Harvard and Penn, with Yale and Cornell only a half game behind.

OKLAHOMA PUSHED Nebraska out of the big six picture 27-6.

Notre Dame invaded the deep south and showed 70,000 fans and the Tulane players an almost perfect brand of football in winning 41-0. Delaware spun through its 20th game since 1940 without a setback by pushing aside Muhlenberg, previously unbeaten, 20-12.

Stanford walloped California 25-6, Oregon State downed Oregon 13-0, and Washington blanked Montana, 2-0.

TENNESSEE ACCEPTS ORANGE BOWL BID

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 25 -(AP)—The University of Tennessee Sunday accepted a bid to play in the 1947 Orange Bowl football classic, R. D Freeman, chairman of the committee arranging the New Year's Day event, announced here.

Leafs Retain Lead By Blanking Detroit

DETROIT, Nov. 25 (AP) — Pouring in four goals in the last period, two by right wing Howie Meeker, Toronto Maple Leafs hung on to their National Hockey League lead last night by blanking Detroit Red Wings 5-0 before 14,619 fans — largest crowd ever to see a regular league game here.

The crowd, exceeded at Olympia for hockey only by the 14,890 who watched Detroit and Toronto in a Stanley Cup playoff tilt in April, 1945, saw the Leafs throw up an almost impenetrable defence at the blue line to stifle the hard-checking game handily with their last period flood of goals.

TORONTO goalie Turk Broda's shutout was the first for any league team over Detroit since last February when Montreal blanked the Wings 2-0.

It was a bruising scoreless tie until only three minutes were left in the second period, when left wing Lynn took Kennedy's pass at the blue line and soloed in. The shot got past Harry Lumley, Detroit goalie, but hit the cross-bar and rebounded in front of the net, where Meeker flashed up to whack it in.

Centre Norman (Bud) Poile caught Lumley out of the Detroit net early in the third and beat him to the puck to punch in the goal that made it 2-0.

LESS THAN a minute later Kennedy's pass set up Meeker again and he soloed in to beat Lumley with a delayed shot into the corner of the net. Nick Metz pass across the mouth of the goal set up Gaye Stewart for Toronto's fourth goal midway in the last period and Joe Klukay got the last one with 5½ minutes to play and while Detroit defenceman Al Dewsbury was serving time for body-checking.

Although the game was marked by hard checking all the way, highlight of the rough stuff came in the final three minutes when Stewart of the Leafs and rookie Gordon Howe of the Red Wings slugged it out in a rip-roaring fist fight at the boards, with the 18-year-old Howe gaining a popular decision by flooring the Leaf after a long and lusty exchange of punches.

TORONTO'S victory hoisted the Leafs' edge to three points over Detroit, which had climbed into second by beating the Leafs 4-2 last night at Toronto. Montreal stepped ahead of Detroit into second place by beating Boston.

ABEL LEADS RED WINGS IN SATURDAY VICTORY

TORONTO, Nov. 25 -(CP)- Veteran forward Sid Abel scored two goals and assisted on another Saturday night to lead the resurgent Detroit Red Wings to their fourth straight National Hockey League victory—a 4-2 conquest of the league-leading Toronto Maple Leafs before 13,462 fans.

The 28-year-old native of Melville, Sask. back for his first full hockey season after wartime service in the armed forces, tallied the game's first goal, assisted on another after the Leafs had tied it up and then accounted for what proved to be the winning tally in the third period.

FIRST PERIOD: 1 — Detroit, Abel (Taylor) 14.21. Penalty—Thompson.

SECOND PERIOD: 2, Toronto, Ezinicki (Apps) 3.37; 3—Detroit, Jackson (Abel) 15.23.

Penalties—Taylor, Mortson, Boesch.

THIRD PERIOD: 4 — Detroit, Abel

BREAKS TIE :Ken Reardon, former Edmonton junior defenceman who is starring with Montreal Canadiens in the NHL, last night fired the payoff goal as the Habs registered a 4-2 victory at Boston. Ken broke a 2-2 tie early in the third period with a 40-foot shot to put Canadiens in the lead where they stayed.

Players in Scotland May Receive Bonuses

FALKIRK, Scotland, Nov. 25 (CP cable) — Dissatisfaction among 70 Canadian hockey players in Scotland with their pay may be solved following an announcement Saturday by Festus Moffat, president of the Scottish Ice Hockey Association.

Moffat, who also is Falkirk representative of the Scottish Ice Rinks Association, said in a statement that after a strike threat from the Canadian players, the S. I. H. A. had decided to pay a £2 10 shillings ($10 a week bonus at the end of the season) in addition to the regular (7 weekly wages.

THE PRESIDENT added that the bonus will go to "each player who completes his contract on a satisfactory basis."

Moffat said a request for a meeting with the S.I.H.A. was received from one player "who stated he represented the remaining players."

THE OFFICIAL announcement of dissatisfaction among the Canadians who came to Scotland to make up a seven-team, all-Canadian league, confirms Canadian Press reports Oct. 17 that the players had complaints about the financial set-up, and a show-down with league officials was imminent.

Players told The Canadian Press that they signed contracts in Canada which called for £7, then the equivalent of $31.50 a week in Canadian money. Officials said, however, that the contracts stipulated a flat £7 which was unchanged by the revaluation of the Canadian dollar which brought the pound's value down to $4 and the players' salaries to $28 a week.

Canadiens Win 4-2 Over Boston Bruins

BOSTON, Nov. 25 (AP) — Backed by brilliant goaltending, Montreal Canadiens gained a 4-2 victory over Boston Bruins to break their third-place National Hockey League tie last night before a capacity 13,900 crowd in Boston Gardens. A 40-foot scoring drive by defenceman Kenny Reardon was the Flying Frenchmen's clincher.

Reardon's game-winning goal was made during the second minute of the finale while Elmer Lach skated across the Boston edge to lock goalie Frankie Brimsek's view. With 22 seconds left, Brimsek was pulled out and Rodger Ledger drove a puck into the empty cage for the fourth Montreal tally.

Both teams scored twice in the first period. Maurice Richard stole the puck from a Bruin near the Boston net before scoring unassisted, and, during the ninth minute of play, Billy Reay put Canadiens into a 2-0 lead.

The Kitchener line accounted for both of the Boston goals, little Bobby Bauer getting the first one and Milt Schmidt the other, with only a bit more than a minute to play in the opening session.

During a second period pileup in front of the Montreal net, Ken Modell suffered a fractured nose. Another Montreal casualty was Elmer Lach, who came out with a scalp wound.

FIRST PERIOD: 1—Montreal, Richard 6.33; 2—Montreal, Reay (Gravelle) 8.37; 3, Boston, Bauer (Schmidt, Egan) 11.48; 4—Boston, Schmidt (Bauer, Pratt) 18.36.

Penalties—Dumart, Pratt.

SECOND PERIOD: Scoring—none. Penalties—none.

THIRD PERIOD: 5 — Montreal, K. Reardon 1.47; 6—Montreal, Leger (Peters, Reay) 19.38.

Penalties—none.

This Dan Boone Is Up-to-Date

CLEVELAND, Nov. 25 -(BUP)— Even the favorite sport of Dan'l Boone has gone modern.

When D. H. Henderson of Cleveland goes hunting—he brings 'em back frozen. Henderson has installed a special freezing unit on the back of a truck. He returned from his latest hunting trip to South Dakota with 72 pheasants, five teal and six rabbits as well preserved as the day they were bagged. Says Henderson:

"It's cheaper than shipping and storage."

It is believed that poliomyelitis was first described by a London physician in 1784.

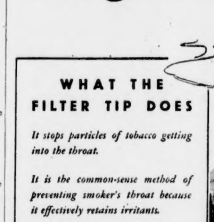
...THE FILTER TIP enriches the natural fragrance



WHAT THE FILTER TIP DOES

It is the common-sense method of preventing smoker's throat because it effectively retains irritants.

It guards physical fitness.

Now try the natural fragrance without the natural faults. Now taste the true Virginia flavour — freed by the exclusive du Maurier filter tip of those irritants that form wherever tobacco burns. Have a cooler, smoother, cleaner smoke than you have ever known. And judge whether such unalloyed pleasure was ever yours before.

To Purchase on Cash Basis

City Completes Agreement With Calgary Power Co.

City commissioners have completed an agreement with the Calgary Power Co., under which the company will purchase from the city 20,000,000 kilowatt hours of power on a cash basis, according to a report to be filed with city council Monday evening by the commissioners.

Under the agreement the company will pay the city five cents per kilowatt hour, and estimates prepared by W. I. McFarland, power superintendent, indicate that if this power is sold on an "off-peak" basis a fair profit would come to the city.

As part of the agreement the Calgary Power Co., has agreed to relinquish its right to obtain 3,227,300 kilowatt hours under the 1941 agreement, and also has agreed that as at such time as the new agreement is covering interchange and the return of power under the 1941 agreement is being drafted to take effect on May 1, 1947, the debt owed to the city by the company will be 99,846,200 kilowatt hours, the amount of power owed at October 31, 1946.

Company Officials in City

Kaiser-Frazer Autos Will Be Shown Here

Introducing to Northern Alberta the new Kaiser Special and Frazer automobiles, scheduled to be in production soon at Willow Run plant in Michigan, a group of Kaiser-Frazer Corp. officials were in Edmonton Monday.

THE NEW FOR-DOR sedans, equipped with 100 hp. Continental motors, will be on public display for the first time Tuesday in the show room of the Edward I. Clarke Company Ltd., 10362 101 street. The Clarke Company will be Northern Alberta distributors for the autos.

M.R. Cornell, of Willow Run, director of Canadian Sales; J.W. Atkinson, Regina, assistant director of sales and A.M. Stuart, London, Ont., service manager for the firm in Canada, are here for the first public display, guests at the Macdonald hotel.

THE CARS WILL be shown privately to dealers and industrialists Monday and Mr. Cornell addressed a luncheon meeting of auto men in the Macdonald at noon Monday.

In an interview Mr. Cornell said it is not known just what the Kaiser Special and Frazer cars will sell for but it will be slightly above $2,000.

"It is the intention of the company to enter the low-priced car manufacturing field in the near future and we plan a Canadian assembly plant, somewhere in Eastern Canada," Mr. Cornell said.

HE SAID IT WAS expected to have samples for all Canadian distributors in December and deliveries of cars to the public in January.

There will be 13 distributors and 240 dealers for Kaiser-Frazer cars in Canada.

AT PRESENT the company is building 250 cars per day in the Willow Run plant where one Liberator bombing plane per hour was turned out at peak of wartime plane production.

Mr. Cornell said it was hoped to have production up to 6,000 cars for December; 10,000 in January and 15,000 in February.

In March the company hopes to produce 20,000 automobiles and maintain a 1,500 per day output from then on.

BETWEEN 5,000 and 6,000 persons are employed at Willow Run and when full production is maintained 10,000 employees will be on the plant payroll.

The Willow Run plant is unusual among auto manufacturing plants as the entire plant is on one floor occupying 4,000,000 square feet.

WILLOW RUN will also turn turn out a complete line of farm implements. These will be shipped in December to distributors and will include gasoline and diesel tractors. It is the firm's intention to make household appliances too, such as hydraulic dishwashers and washing machines.

The Kaiser-Frazer cars have 123½ inch wheelbase and have the widest seats of any car on the market, Mr. Cornell said. The seats measure 62½ inches. The motors are six cylinder.

The officials will leave Monday night for Calgary and Vancouver which will conclude their tour of Canadian distributors and dealers in Canada.

Plan No New '47 Assessment

No new assessment will be made for 1947, and the 1946 assessment will be the basis for next year's taxation if a recommendation by Thomas Walker, city assessor, is accepted by city council.

He is requesting that the 1946 land and improvements assessments be carried forward, and that a bylaw be enacted giving him authority to proceed with the 1947 assessment roll on this basis.

DIES IN EAST: Will J. Green, general secretary of the Canadian Gideons since 1924, who died in Toronto, Nov. 22. He was well known in Edmonton, having served in the YMCA here at one time His later work was assisting the planning and distribution of the New Testament with Psalms and Proverbs, to every school child in Canada.

$16,341 Damages Asked by Woman

Mrs. Edna M. Ladick, Edmonton, through her solicitor, J.W. Miller, K.C., filed a statement of claim in supreme court Monday seeking $16,341 special and general damages from John and Marcus Crozier, Namao, for injuries received in a motor car collision on the Alberta Beach road June 10 last.

THE ACTION arose out of a collision between automobiles operated by Harry Cross, Edmonton, and a motor car owned by John R. Crozier, and driven with his consent by Marcus Crozier. Two persons died as a result of the accident and several others were severely injured.

It is alleged in the statement of claim that Mrs. Ladick received a fractured kneecap, had both legs broken, and other injuries some of which it is alleged will be permanent.

Many Sorry to Go; Some Returning

First Large Party Leaves City For Return to the Old Country

By SHIRLEY WEIR

Bound for England after waiting as many as seven years for passage, more than 50 persons from Edmonton and district embarked on the first lap of their long journey from Edmonton's Canadian Pacific Railway station, Sunday afternoon. Their exodus marked the first sizeable civilian contingent to leave for England from here since before the war.

EMOTIONS were varied as the passengers boarded their special car and waited for the train to pull out. Many were excited, a few phlegmatic and several eagerly looking forward to their return to the country of their birth.

Not all of the group are planning to confine their journey just to England. Mrs. Rosa Pestell of Donnelly, will go on to Lille, France, where she will visit her mother Mme. L. Note, whom she hasn't seen since coming to Canada 27 years ago. Mrs. Pestell has been hoping and planning for this trip for many years. She plans to return to Alberta in the early spring.

WALES is the destination of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Evans, retired farm folk of Fairview. They have many relatives in that country that they have not seen for 26 years.

One of the oldest and most thrilled among the travellers is Mrs. L. Goodall of Cherhill. More than 70 years old, she looks forward to her trip with an enthusiasm that can not be equalled among even the children of the group. Mrs. Goodall plans to make her home with a brother in Wandsworth, just outside of London.

HER EMOTIONS were mixed about leaving Canada. She has lived in Cherhill since 1918 and has contributed a great portion of her life toward welfare work in that community. She and her husband, who died a few years ago, built both the first hotel and the first church in Cherhill.

"Canada is a wonderful country," she said, "if I had any remaining kin here, I wouldn't leave for anything in the world."

A poignant nostalgia, for the rolling green countryside of England, is the urge that has prompted Mrs. N. B. Stranach of Edmonton to seek passage. Mrs. Stranach has been a war guest in this city since 1942. She came over with her daughter, Mrs. James Hall, one of the first British war brides to come to Canada. Mrs. Stranach said that she had enjoyed her stay in Canada very much, but was lonely for her own country.

ALSO INCUDED in the group were C. L. Pitu, Edmonton former member of the RCAF who is returning to England with his British war bride.

Although Mrs. C. A. Bennett, provincial nurse, was eagerly looking forward to a return to the country she left 17 years ago, her two children Betty Ann, 15, and Billy, 12 years old, are reluctant to leave their playmates and are sure that they won't find England nearly as much fun as Canada.

Mrs. Frank Booth, 11340 92 street, has been waiting ever since the beginning of the war to get back to Northumberland, England and visit her aging mother.

SHE HAS BEEN away from England for 17 years. Plans a three month visit and then a return to Canada.

The party will sail from New York on the Queen Elizabeth on Nov. 29. Steamship arrangements were made in Edmonton by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Jury Is Unable To Reach Verdict

A supreme court jury Saturday failed to agree upon a verdict in the $19742 damage action brought by Francis and Alex Kaliel, Westlock district residents, against Batholomew Aherne, Lucien Blackburn, and Arthur Taillifer, also of that district, after discharged by Mr. Justice C. J. Ford.

The jurist intimated that a new trial would be held as soon as a new jury could be empanelled.

EARLIER IN the trial Mr. Justice Ford intimated there was no evidence to go to the jury on the allegations by the plaintiffs that Aherne, Blackburn and Taillifer conspired to commit perjury at a previous hearing of the action in which Mr. Blackburn obtained a judgment from Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald for $12,868.

The court case arose out of a motor car accident near Pibroch in the winter of 1944, the present action being brought to set aside the judgment of Mr. Justice Macdonald on the ground it was obtained by perjured evidence.

City's Town Planning Commission To Act on Behalf of Jasper Place

Edmonton's town planning commission will be the planning authority for West Jasper Place and will start as soon as possible to prepare a town plan of the district, if a recommendation of the city commissioners is acceptable to city council.

Several months ago a request was made by the municipal district of Stony Plain that the city assume the task of town planning and inspection of construction in the West Jasper Place area, and the city commissioners were instructed to confer with the municipal authorities on the matter.

A. Fraser Duncan, K.C., solicitor for the municipality, has submitted to the commissioners a proposal under which the town planning commission would become the town planning authority for the hamlet, and the city's building department the supervising authority for all future building in the district.

Plane Hit by Bullet

Open Season on Airmen?

Two Edmonton airmen Sunday may possibly have thought that open season on airplanes had been declared as the Cessna monoplane in which they were riding was struck by a bullet from a rifle as they approched the airport.

Gordon Anderson, 11223 91 street, pilot of the plane, accompanied by Joseph Dianocki, 9393 99 street, had just finished making an air tour of the city and were approaching the airbase about one half mile to the north, near the north fringe of Calder, when they heard a sharp crack. Upon landing they investigated and found a bullet hole in the fuselage about one third way up the plane from the tail. At the time the plane was hit Mr. Anderson stated they were about 300 feet from the ground.

Police searched the area where the shot was believed to have been fired from, but no information regarding persons seen with rifles could be obtained. The airplane is owned by the Hoover Machine Company, 8032 102 street and is operated by Mr. Anderson.

Mrs. McKinnon Rites Tuesday

A funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in St. Joseph's Cathedral for Mrs. Mary Agnes McKinnon, wife of Malcolm Francis McKinnon of Leduc, who died Saturday. She was 71 years old.

Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters and three sons.

Before proceeding to St. Joseph's Cathedral, a service will be held at 9:30 a.m. at Connelly-McKinley's funeral chapel. Prayers will me held at 8 p.m. Monday at the funeral home.

Burial will take place in the family plot in the Edmonton Catholic cemetery.

Skates Stolen

Several pair of skates and an army uniform were stolen from a shed during the last week at the home of Howard Grey, 12121 97 street, according to a report received by city police.

I SAW TODAY: Ald. J. B. Gillies entering the Civic Block; And John Pollock leaving it; Curtis Munson entering the Royal Bank building; A. W. Miller, K.C., and R. Fred Jackson discussing a question of law at the court house; Harry Stofer walking east on Jasper ave; Jack Patterson buying a lot of coffee for himself and some Regina visitors; Andy Nesbitt walking south on 100 street; W. G. K. Bloor entering the Tegler Building.

Christmas Seal your Christmas mail.

If Recommendation Accepted

Rinks to Receive Usual Grants of Cash, Utilities

The customary grants of utilities and cash will be made to city community and boys' hockey rinks this year if a recommendation of the city commissioners is accepted by city council Monday night.

Last year a total of $10,435 was paid by the public school board and the city, of which amount the city paid out $8,735 and the school borad, $1,660. The major portion of the city's expenditure was $6,494 for boys' rinks.

Class "A" community rinks will get a city grant of $100 in utilities and $75 in cash from the public school board; class "B" rinks will get $50 in utilities and $50 cash, and "C" rinks $25 in utilities and $30 in cash.

If the city council approves the recommendation of the commissioners an advertisement will be placed in local papers inviting community leagues to apply for these grants.

Second Concert of Season

Philharmonic Offering Light but Pleasing

For the second concert of the current season's series by the Edmonton Philharmonic Orchestra, at the Strand theatre last night, the conductor, Abe Fratkin, chose a lighter than usual, or what is more colloquially called a "popular" program. It was devoid of a symphony, and the two overtures and other component parts were less weighty in texture than customarily included.

HOWEVER, THE capacity audience found the offerings entirely to its liking and the various numbers were greeted warmly.

Because a program is light in texture, it does not mean that it is easier to play. For instance the Flight of the Bumble Bee calls for a high degree of technical and interpretive skill. The overture to the Nutcracker Suite presents a multitude of difficulties to the string section and the Pizzicato from the ballet "Sylvia" represents the plucking of the strings at its maximum speed.

THEREFORE Mr. Fratkin and his players could afford no letdown in diligence or application. And because the program was fraught with difficulties there was a reasonable chance for shortcomings. There were places in which the performance failed to measure up to the desired standard, when ensembles were not charged with clarity that should have been theirs and when intonation was open to challenge. Also there were some moments when the tempos seemed to lag. But here again Mr. Fratkin may have been posed with the problem of keeping up the tempo and producing unclear results, or sacrificing clarity for precision. Perhaps in such instances he felt that dragging the tempo was the lesser of the two evils. Mr. Fratkin labored lovingly and unremittingly in the orchestra's weal throughout the evening.

GENERALLY SPEAKING, the standard of performance was satisfactory. The orchestra was at full strength numerically. There was undeniable enthusiasm in the playing at all times and the concert as a whole went with a swing and at a merry pace.

Schubert's Alfonso and Estrella overture received its Edmonton premiere as an orchestra of symphonic calibre. It had not been played by the old Edmonton Symphony Orchestra and last night was its first performance by the present orchestra.

THE STRING SECTION was heard to advantage in the Elegy from Tchaikovsky's Serenade for Strings, while Rimsky-Korsakov's Flight of the Bumble Bee though short, demanded a high degree of technical facility. Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite, one of the most charming and most popular compositions received considerate treatment although the overture was not the best performance of it one could hear and the Waltz of the Flowers lacked the ebb and flow, and lilt that it calls for.

The Sylvia Pizzicato and Strauss's naughty Vienna Life waltz were splendidly done while Suppe's Morning, Noon and Night overture was given with brilliance and spirit, with R. H. Patzig scoring in the mellow cello solo.

NORMA MADILL, contralto was the soloist singing My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice from "Samson and Delilah" and Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes. She has seldom, if ever, been heard to better advantage for quality, interpretation and intonation. One wished, however, for greater volume and dramatic intensity in the impassioned Saint-Saens aria.—J.O.

ATTEMPT BREAK-IN

An attempted break in a the Sally Shop No. 1, 10167 101 street, during Saturday night was reported to city police. Investigations revealed that a hole had been cut through the screen of the rear door in order to unlatch the hook.

Sessions Tuesday

Social Credit League to Meet

Preparations have been made for one of the largest attendances of delegates in years to the opening Tuesday at the Masonic Temple of the 12 annual convention of the Alberta Social Credit League, officials said Monday.

Premier Ernest Manning and Mrs. Manning will be featured speakers at the Tuesday afternoon session, dealing with Ronald Gostick, national secretary-treasurer of the Social Credit Association.

Wednesday, Mayor Harry Ainlay will welcome the conventioneers on behalf of the city, and speakers during the morning will include Mr. Jorgensen, in the president's address and Floyd M. Baker, MLA in the general secretary-treasurer's report.

"Charting Our Course," is the title of Premier Manning's address to be delivered at 2 p.m., following which there will be resolutions and reports of women's auxiliaries.

A BANQUET has been arranged for Wednesday evening at the Macdonald hotel.

Thursday morning, Dr. J. N. Haldeman, president of the Saskatchewan Social Credit League and Mr. Gostick will each speak on the National movement.

The concluding session will hear Hon. Lucien Maynard, KC, attorney-general in an address on the Alberta Bill of Rights. Closing message of the convention will be from Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines.

A PUBLIC MEETING will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple with Premier Manning and Mr. Low as the featured speakers.

At the Wednesday evening banquet in the Macdonald the delegates will be addressed by the Rev. E. G. Hansell, MP. and Hon. A. J. Hooke, provincial secretary.

A social credit caucus will be convened Friday.

U.K. Goods In Demand

Demands for British-made goods is brisk in Canada and simply "booming" in South Africa, Percy Linden, president of the Wedekind and Company novelty display advertising company of London, England, said in an interview at the Macdonald hotel Monday.

The British advertising firm official is accompanied on his tour of Canada by Phillip Linden, his half-brother, also associated with the firm.

Mr. Linden has made many trips to Canada. In December of 1945 he was aboard the ill-fated Western Prince torpedoed by a German submarine off the coast of Iceland and spent a day in a lifeboat before being rescued. Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe was also a passenger aboard the torpedoed ship.

Knowles-Elliott Wedding At Christ Church of England

Christ Church of England was the scene of a double-ring wedding ceremony Saturday at 6 p.m. when Miss Isabel Callaway Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Herbert Elliott of Edmonton, became the bride of Leonard Arthur Knowles of Calgary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knowles of Edmonton. The Rev. E. S. Ottley officiated. Miss Dorothy Teape played the wedding music and Mrs. Annette Brissenden sang, Bless This House. Chrysanthemums decorated the church.

ENTERING the church on the arm of her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace, made with a full, flared skirt. The fitted bodice featured a square neckline and long, lace mittens complimented the cape sleeves. Her floor length veil was caught to her head with white carnations and she carried red and white carnations. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace.

Miss Irene Emberg was bridesmaid. She wore a jersey gown of Robin egg blue, fashioned on Princess lines and made with a shirred bodice and full skirt. She carried bronze spray chrysanthemums and wore a velvet band of matching flowers in her hair. She wore lace mittens to match her gown.

Herb Knowles was best man and ushers were Raymond Lynch and Kenneth Knowles, brother of the bridegroom.

AFTER THE ceremony a wedding dinner to 30 guests was held in the drawing room of the Macdonald hotel. Mother of the bride, receiving with the bridal party, wore a gray figured draped model afternoon frock with gray hat trimmed with green ostrich feathers. At her shoulder, she wore a corsage of bronze spray chrysanthemums. Mother of the bridegroom chose a pastel green frock with black hat and a corsage of bronze spray chrysanthemums. Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. J. C. Grindell of Calgary, also receiving was frocked in gray with red trimming and wore a corsage of red carnations.

The bride's table, laid in white linen, was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, flanked by tall tapers and bouquets of flowers. Raymond Lynch, uncle of the bride, proposed the bridal toast.

THE COUPLE will spend a honeymoon in Calgary and Banff and for travelling, the bride donned a powder blue wool suit with hat to match, tan topcoat and black accessories. A corsage of white carnations completed her going-away ensemble. Mr. and Mrs. Knowles will reside in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lynch and son Terry, of Cranbrook, B. C., were out-of-town guests.

Tea Honors Bride-Elect

Complimenting Miss Audrey Crutchfield, whose marriage to Frank Meyer takes place at St. Edmunds church Wednesday at 10 a.m., her mother, Mrs. J. K. Crutchfield entertained at a trousseau tea Sunday afternoon. Seventy-five guests were invited. Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the rooms.

For receiving the guests Mrs. Crutchfield wore a blue crepe dress trimmed with white lace and complimented with a corsage of pink carnations. Miss Crutchfield wore a powder blue crepe frock and a red rose corsage. Mrs. L. Meyer, mother of the bridegroom-elect received with the hostesses and wore a light blue two-piece suit with a corsage of red carnations.

The tea table was set with a lace cloth and centred with a bowl of pink and white carnations, flanked with pink and white lighted tapers. Presiding at the tea urn were Mrs. E. Carey, Mrs. H. Hancock, Mrs. F. Dickey and Mrs. H. Elliott.

Assisting in serving were the Misses Hazel Arnold, Nancy Rankin, Elsie Mann and Rita Cross.

The Misses Mary Campbell and Betty Kelly showed the trousseau and Miss Charlotte Bate was in charge of the guest book.

Dr. Hitschmanova Paints Picture of Dire Plight

Dr. Lotta Hitschmanova, executive director of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada, who arrived in Edmonton Monday morning, said the difference that the children of Europe are bred on fear rather than affection, on brutality rather than mother's love and on privation rather than in carefree innocence.

Dr. Hitschmanova, who has just returned from a seven-month tour of Czechoslovakia, France, Belgium and Switzerland, claims that not only are the children enclothed and starved, but their homes are no refuge from cold and hunger. There is no coal for the homes there.

With the light of the crusader burning in her eyes she said, "If only I could bring back that $10,000 I know to raise, what wonders it could do."

SHE IS ON A three-month speaking tour which takes her through out the Western provinces. Edmonton, Calgary, Regina and Winnipeg are included in her itinerary where, for the past year under the auspices of the Women's Canadian club she is appealing to Canadians to contribute to the USCC's drive for funds to continue its relief work throughout war ridden Czechoslovakia and France.

"Significant enough that Europeans need our assistance now more than ever before is the fact the committee's present quota of $100,000 is double that for its last drive several months ago," she said.

"The United Nations Rehabilitation and Relief Association will go out of existence the end of this year and other welfare organizations already have disbanded, which means that United Service Committee will be one of the few left to carry on the work of saving the lives of starving Europeans."

NOT TOO LONG ago the hard working little director was a Czechoslovakian refugee moving from hiding-place to hiding-place in an effort to escape the Nazis. The memory still lingers of the starving and disease-ridden people which the Germans left in their wake.

It was refreshed during the tour this summer throughout France, Belgium and her home country, where Dr. Hitschmanova discovered that tuberculosis and malnutrition are continuing to reap their harvest of lives.

"It may be true people do not die of starvation any longer in liberated lands, they die of diseases of malnutrition," she said.

"Men, women and children bought their last dress, their last coat, their last shoes in 1939 or 1940. Shoes are the greatest clothing problem, she said. It takes four months and costs $4 to get a pair of shoes repaired.

CHILDREN she said have no underwear. "When I saw them it was August," she stated simply. "Now it is October. And it is cold in Czechoslovakia and France. They will be cold. Just send them something to keep them warm," she pleaded. "Just a blanket or a bit of clothing."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation for the kindness and sympathy, prayers, mass, cards and lovely flowers extended to us in our recent bereavement of our wife and mother, Mrs. Adelia Pelletier.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness and beautiful floral tributes received from kind friends during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved brother, Simon Freestone. We especially thank Mr. [illegible] and the staff of the International Harvest Co., the pallbearers, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. [illegible], Mr. and Mrs. Prokow, Dr. [illegible] and nurses of the Royal Alexandra Hospital.

—Mrs. Gilbert Church, Mrs. Donald Goodbrand, Mr. Andrew Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Olsen.

IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of Mrs. [illegible] Symington who passed away on Nov. 23, 1940.

Many a day her name is spoken
And many an hour she is in our thoughts,
A link in our family chain is broken,
She has gone from our home but not from our hearts.

—Ever remembered by her loving husband and family.

IN loving memory of Cpl. [illegible] Strachan who passed away Nov. 24, 1944.

Gone from us, but leaving memories
Death can never take away,
Memories that will always linger
While upon this earth we stay.

—Ever remembered by his loving wife, Norman, [illegible] and Billy and the Ball [illegible].

EDMONTON LIVESTOCK

There was just fair action on the cattle market on Monday with prices about steady with previous close. Receipts liberal, bulk being from the north will be shown later in the day. Good choice steers 11.75 to 12.50, good to choice butcher heifers 10.50 to 11.25, good cows 8.25 to 9.

WINNIPEG LIVESTOCK

WINNIPEG, (CP)—Trade opening up generally unsteady. Packer bids ruling mostly 50 lower. Not sufficient early sales recorded to establish reliable quotations. Indication points to a sizable carryover taking place Monday, as 6,000 cattle and 1,100 calves arrived over the week-end. Hogs 2,050: grade B-1 dressed 18.30. Sheep 2,000: good lambs 13.75.

LIVESTOCK TRAFFIC

Rail receipts on Western stockyards, Edmonton, were unusually heavy for a Saturday, 13 carloads arriving from Alix, Mirror, Freemont, Consort, Donalda, Hardisty, Chauvin, Westlock, Myrnam and Smithers. The Donalda shipment was sheep, that of Westlock hogs, others mainly cattle and calves. On the previous day 20 cars of stock were shipped to B.C. and five cars of cattle went back to the country feedlots.

LONDON STOCKS

LONDON, (AP) — Stock closings were uneven in dull trade Monday: Austin Motor "A" 42s 1½d; Babcock Wilcox 68s 9d; Boots Pure Drug 63s 7½d; Central Mining £21¾ ex-dividend; Consolidated Goldfields 70s 3d; Courtalds 53s 9d; Crown Mines 102s 6d; De Beers £20⅞; East Geduld £9; Hudson's Bay Co. 99s; London Midland Ry. 129¼; Metal Box 115s; Mexican Eagle 14s 10½d; Mining Trust Ltd. 10s; Rand Mines 133s 9d; Spring Mines 11s 6d.

Bonds: British 2½ percent consols £99 1/16; British 3½ percent war loan £107¾; British funding 4s 1960-90 £120⅝.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, (AP) — Many market leaders retreated Monday in another of the slowest sessions of the last several months. The extreme losses running to two or more points were trimmed here and there near the close. Transfers for the full proceedings tapered to around 800,000 shares.

Canadian issues were easy at midday. Both Canadian Pacific and Dome Mines softened ⅛ and Hiram Walker and Distiller Seagram each slipped ¼.

TORONTO STOCKS

TORONTO, (CP)—The aggregate Monday turnover was around 800,000 shares. The base metals were higher generally in the early period but the gains were cut or eliminated in the later proceedings. Minor losses increased in golds. Anglo-Canadian and Pacalta were mildly soft spots in western oils. Home was up 5 cents.

Grain Prices

EDMONTON GRAIN

Street prices on Edmonton deliveries of grain were quoted by the National Grain Company Monday: Rye—2 C.W. 2.28, 3 C.W. 2.23, 4 C.W. 2.14½, ergoty 1.87½. Oats—all grades 39½ plus 10-cent bonus. Barley—all grades 49¼ plus 15-cent bonus. Wheat—received on wheat board scale of 1.20 for top northern.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, (CP)—Rye futures prices on the Winnipeg grain exchange rallied from early weaknesses and moderate gains were scored Monday. Openings were almost same as previous close.

Trading was dull. Prices at the close of the session were 2½ to 1¾ cents a bushel higher. Cash rye was 2.63.

In the export market, it was reported that 2,000,000 bushels of barley had been sold to the British ministry of food. The United Kingdom also purchased 300,000 bushels of wheat.

Closing rye: Dec. 2.60; May 2.47¾; July 2.33½.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, (AP)—Grains moved into lower territory today under the leadership of corn. At one time the January wheat contract was off five cents from the 26-year peak established last Friday. Oats were more resistant to the decline than either wheat or corn.

Wheat finished ⅛-1¾ lower, Jan. 2.13½; corn was ¼ lower to ⅝ higher, and oats were up ⅝-⅞. Dec. barley closed at 1.32½.

Cash grain: corn No. 2 yellow 1.45¼; Oats No. 1 heavy mixed 84½-85¾; Barley, malting 1.45-1.78 nominal.

STEEL OUTPUT DROPS

NEW YORK, (AP) — A sharp drop of 20.9 points in anticipated steel production this week, due to the coal shutdown, was forecast Monday by the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Production was expected to plummet from 91.4 percent of capacity last week to 70.5 percent this week, the institute said.

MONTREAL STOCKS

MONTREAL.—In papers, Dryden jumped 1¾ and International, Price, Donnacona edged up. Firmer in industrials were Stelco and Ford. Brazilian was harder in utilities. In loss territory were Winnipeg Electric and B.C. Power "A". Nickel and Smelters posted rises in metals. Royalite was a winner in western oils. O'Brien pushed up in junior mines.

Montreal Arrests 41 'Witnesses'

MONTREAL, (CP)— Arrested during the week-end, 41 members of the Witnesses of Jehovah sect pleaded not guilty before Chief Recorder Thouin Monday to charges of distributing pamphlets without a permit and were released on cash deposit of $25 or bail of $100 each pending trial.

Meanwhile, provincial police detained Omer Lacasse, 48-year-old farmer arrested Saturday by municipal police of St. Jerome, about 35 miles north of Montreal, as he allegedly was distributing pamphlets to employes of a store there.

It was learned that conspiracy charges are being directed specifically at members of the sect distributing a pamphlet entitled "The Burning Hate of Quebec," which is considered by the attorney-general's department to be a seditious publication.

Bus Driver Resents Payment in Pennies

CLIFTON, N.J., (CP) — Anthony Raia, 42, a New Jersey bus driver, was released on $1,000 bail Monday in connection with the beating of a passenger, Edward Sprock, who said he was attacked with an axe after attempting to pay his fare in pennies, police reported.

Barley Certificates May Pay by Export

WINNIPEG, (CP) — Western barley producers will probably receive a windfall on their barley equalization final payments this year, the Winnipeg Tribune reported Saturday.

When the crop year started, the Canadian wheat board ruled that buyers on the open market must pay the farmer 64¾ cents plus 15 cents equalization payment, a total of 79¾ cents a bushel.

All farmers who delivered barley since the beginning of the year in August received that amount for their top-grades.

However, on Sept. 25, equalization fees began mounting rapidly as United States importers with lowest home supplies since 1937 made determined efforts to buy Canadian barley for malting and feeding purposes.

By Oct. 1 the fee was 68 cents and 64 West; by Nov. 1 95 and 91 cents and on Friday last it was 1.10 and 1.06 up nine cents in 24 hours for the greatest boost on record.

BLACK MARKET IN PAPER

NEW YORK, (CP)—A black market in paper is thriving in Sweden, the New York Times says Monday in a Stockholm dispatch. Manufacturers are solidly booked for 1947, the newspaper said, but mills still have "hold-outs" from 1946 output available to anyone willing to pay above-ceiling prices.

Newsprint is $180 a short ton for delivery in late 1947, but buyers prepared to pay $250 can get 500 tons immediately.

ONE MINUTE NEWS ABOUT JOHNS-MANVILLE

Not the Cost But the Upkeep

You've heard the expression, "It's not the cost, it's the upkeep". But here's a case where upkeep doesn't enter the picture. You see, when you choose the modern siding material, Johns-Manville "Cedargrains", for building or remodelling, you can forget about maintenance expense. Made of asbestos and cement, Cedargrains are as durable as stone and absolutely fireproof. What's more, they never need periodic painting to preserve them. It's a fact, that in over 35 years not one J-M asbestos shingle has ever worn out or caught fire!

Johns-Manville Cedargrain Asbestos Siding Shingles are strikingly attractive too—have all the beauty of fine weathered wood.

Talk Integration British, U.S. Zone

LONDON, (Reuters)— The cabinet at its meeting Monday was understood to have discussed proposals for integration of the British and American zones of Germany. The cabinet had before it the latest communiques from the United States on the talks proceeding between British Foreign Secretary Bevin and State Secretary Byrnes of the United States.

A decision was awaited on the proposal for reorganization of the Ruhr industries by Britain and the United States at an estimated cost to each of the two occupying countries of $500,000,000 over a three-year period.

AUNT MATILDA RETIRED ON HER SAVINGS... every night!

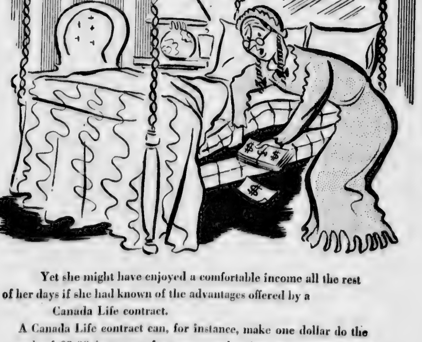
Aunt Matilda kept her savings in the mattress on the bed. She could always get some of it out, "if need be, and no questions asked". So the cash came and went from time to time —and Aunt Matilda's dream of independent old-ladyhood never came true.



Yet she might have enjoyed a comfortable income all the rest of her days if she had known of the advantages offered by a Canada Life contract.

A Canada Life contract can, for instance, make one dollar do the work of $3.00 in terms of a guaranteed retirement income. Ask a Canada Life representative to show you how.

PHILADELPHIA BABY BOY BORN WITH TWO LOWER FRONT TEETH

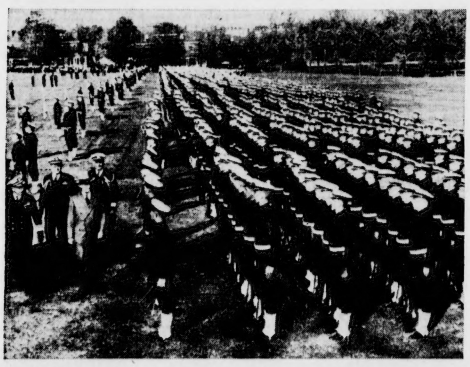
ARMY INTRODUCES NEW EQUIPMENT AT TESTING GROUNDS IN WISCONSIN

Copyright, 1946, by Acme Newspictures, Inc.

UNHAPPY—Attendants hold these provoked youngsters as they landed at La Guardia Field, N. Y., from England. Children of GIs who married British war brides, the new arrivals will be sent to their daddies in various parts of the country. The smallest of the group is two months old.

HE DOESN'T THINK HE'S UNUSUAL—John Nicholas Mijulski, Jr., 11-days-old, appears bored as he relaxes in his crib. He's in the news because he was born with two lower front teeth. The youngster hails from Philadelphia.

BELGIAN CEREMONY—The Belgian Minister of National Defense places a wreath before the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Brussels, as the Belgians observed a solemn Armistice Day. As indicated on the backdrop, the small country was at war for five years.



PRESIDENTIAL REVIEW—Prior to attending a football game, President Truman reviews the "Middies" at Annapolis. Accompanying him, left, is Superintendent of the U. S. Naval Academy, Admiral Aubrey Fitch. Upon returning to Washington, the President departed for a vacation.

WINNING SMILE—With a grateful smile for his new homeland, Leon Padureleanu, three, looks through a life preserver as the S.S. Albion Victory docks in Boston. Leon came from Rumania with his mother, who is an American citizen.

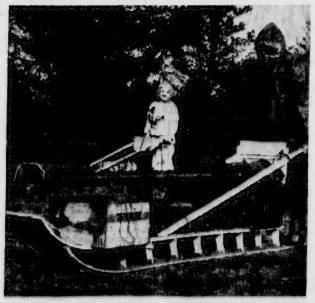
COLD TURKEY—Trapped by one of the most damaging blizzards to hit Colorado in three decades, these turkeys on a farm near Denver are rescued by farmers with the aid of snow plows. Traffic was stopped and lines of communication were crippled by the storm.

RETURNS TO EUROPE—Col. A. J. Drexel Biddle and Mrs. Biddle pose for pictures as they depart on the S. S. America's maiden voyage to Europe. Col. Biddle was former ambassador to Poland in the pre-war era.

ENVY—Licking his chops in envious anticipation, Teddy watches his six-weeks-old offspring, Ritzy, daily with milk bottles. Mrs. Antoinette, of St. Louis, has no intention to leave room, and pop seems destined to go dry. The little fellow seems to be aware of the protection.

DRIVER ESCAPED DEATH—The new auto of Frank J. Turner, of Philadelphia, lies near railroad tracks after it crashed through a fence and plunged 25 feet down the embankment. Turner, who escaped injury, said the wheels locked.

"HOME" AGAIN—Screen star Maureen O'Hara smilingly waves to friends as she arrives in New York from Ireland. The Irish star made a hurried return to the U. S. for a world premiere in New York City.



EQUIPMENT TEST—During winter operations at Camp McCoy, Wis., the Army introduced many new and novel pieces of equipment. Here a soldier mans a convertible toboggan. It is designed to carry loads up to 350 pounds.

Pete sits next to you in school, and Pete's perfection. He's really awfully nice to you. He acts in a dozen ways as though he thought you were fun. He always notices if you wear something new—and tells you he likes it. He walks down the hall with you and carries your books. He seems to like being with you—he doesn't spend much time with the other girls.

You're almost decided you like your Latin teacher—all because Pete makes Latin class so exciting. He scrawls you notes—he applauds you quietly when you know the right answers, he smiles at you and feeds you pretzels. You're conscious to the very roots of your curls—of that guy Pete. He's so close to you—and yet so far away.

Pete likes you—you're sure he does. But why doesn't he do some thing about it—is that you want to know. Why can't he make the moves that show everybody you're the only girl in the world? Why can't he indicate that he curls up inside just being with you—the way you do over him? You're a wit over Pete—why can't he jump overboard too?

You spend every minute with Pete just enjoying him. And when you're not with him, you spend your time wishing Latin class would go on forever. You'd be willing to talk Latin to him over a soda any time. You'd be willing to stand on you head—if Pete asked you to. Can't the guy see it? Doesn't he realize that you're crazy about him? Can't he fall for you?

Maybe he could. But maybe Pete doesn't want to fall that hard for any girl. Maybe he doesn't want to get that involved. Maybe he figures that being as close as he is to you —is as close as he wants to get to any girl. Maybe he doesn't want to bother with all the rigmarole of having dates with her. Maybe he knows that's expensive—and he can't afford date freight. Maybe he's going to wait to fall in love—until he's looked the ground over and found out what sort of girl appeals to him most.

You're getting your share of Pete's attention. And it's great fun. But why hanker for more than your share? If he voluntarily dumps all his affections in your lap sometime—let it come as a delightful surprise. But there's no point in lying awake at night wishing that would happen tomorrow!

You're lucky to have Pete think you're fun in Latin class. You don't have to be piggish. Friends like Pete make the day pass fast. They lend zip to schools hours. You feel fine when you're with Pete. If you'd be satisfied with that—you'd feel better. You wouldn't worry about the girls he's nice to when you're not around. You wouldn't suffer in quiet over him. So just say to yourself "It's nice to like Pete, period."—and don't make yourself sick with wishful thinking.

Believe It or Not! by RIPLEY

Dorothy Dix Says

Dear Miss Dix: My husband swoons over every pretty girl he sees, as the bobby-soxers do over Frank Sinatra, and it makes my blood boil. And it isn't so much my blood boiling as it is the feeling that he is too adolescent to be married and tied down to one woman. Also, that he isn't satisfied with me. I beg him to stop staring at girls, and he refuses to do it.

I HAVE GOTTEN to the place where I can't stand it any longer. Is it too much for a married man to give up? Do men who are proud of their wives stare at girls?

MRS. G.

ANSWER: Certainly the married man who cannot make his eyes behave and who ogles every girl he passes on the street shows that he has never grown up, for it is a boy's trick that makes him as ridiculous as it makes his wife jealous.

* * *

Dear Miss Dix: My wife nags me continualy to give up my business and move to another state because she wants to be near her parents. I have a fine job, with a good future before it, and I am not willing to throw this up to go to a strange place where I would have no way of even making a living. She is so discontented that she is cross with the children, neglects her housekeeping and her personal appearance, and we are all very unhappy.

I am not trying for a divorce. Don't you think it is her duty to either get straight or get out.

UNHAPPY HUSBAND

ANSWER: I certainly do, and I think that unless you take some decisive measures with your wife she is going to nag you into doing what she wants you to do. She will badger you into throwing up your good job and going to live near Mama and Papa, and that will spell your ruin because you will not find such another business opportunity as you have now, and when you can't furnish your wife with the money she is used to she will reproach you with being a failure.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My girl friend and I are 15. We are always talking about what we will name our children and what we will do when we marry. Mother thinks this is awful. What do you think?

TEEN-AGERS

ANSWER: You are just indulging in a hangover from your childhood when you played with dolls and gave them romantic names out of story books. Practically all girls in their teens plan what they are going to do when they grow up and get married. They all dream of marrying handsome lads who will take them to live in ivory towers and who will never weary of making love to them, and who are not in the least like the prosaic youths they finally do take for husbands.

Why Grow Old?

Actress Peggy Knudsen finds apples healthful food and you can tell by looking at her that she has her own little basket of "apples" in the sense Josephine Lowman discusses them today.

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Do you remember the old myth about Ithun, wife of Bragi, the God of Poetry and Eloquence? Ithun owned a casket which was filled with apples a lot of us would like to have. The Fates had allowed her to pick them from the tree of life and they gave immortal youth and beauty to all who ate them. No wonder the Gods lived so long!

WE POOR HUMANS do not own a casket, or even a little yellow basket, filled with such miracles but we do know some tricks which might even make Ithun guess.

Modern figure molding seems like magic. Although I know what it can do, I always experience new satisfaction when I see the metamorphosis from bulges to curves, from fatigue to vitality, from self-consciousness to sparkling personality.

Today a woman can just about write her own ticket so far as her figure is concerned. She can take off pounds and improve her health with diet. She can distribute her weight attractively with exercise. She can compensate for unchangeable faults in boney structure by clever clothes styling! This isn't propaganda but something which happens all over the country.

THE ONLY WOMEN who are disinterested are those who do not know what great improvement they can make in themselves or those who feel that their case is too far gone for reformation. There are many exercises for every part of the body but some are more effective than others.

Today I give you a few miracle exercises from my own little basket!

Thigh reduction: Lie on the floor on your back with your legs straight and your arms on the floor, a little from the sides. Swing the right leg out to the side as far as you can. Keep the heel close to the floor. Swing the leg back to place and a little across the left leg but do not let the hips leave the floor. Continue swinging back and forth. After a while do the same thing with the left leg, swinging out to the left.

Waist and stomach: Lie on your back with your legs straight and your arms extended straight out from the shoulders, resting on the floor. Swing both legs toward the left hand, trying to touch the left hand with the feet. Swing back and toward the right hand, trying to touch the right hand with the feet. This is a continuous swing like the pendulum of a clock. Keep the knees straight and the feet CLOSE to the floor.

IF YOUR PROBLEM is a protruding abdomen send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 2 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

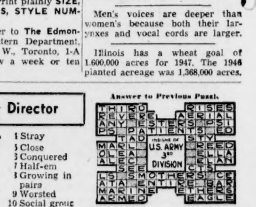
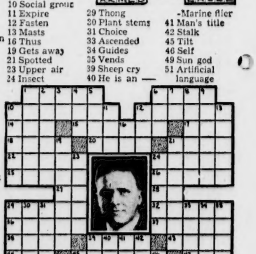
Answer to Previous Puzzle





Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

The first spoonful of cereal or vegetable given to the baby may seem to be repudiated as if he disliked it. The baby takes it into his mouth eagerly, then his little red tongue pushes it out and down his wet chin.

What a disappointment! Every mouthful of food a mother offers to her baby seems to her to be indispensable to him. She wants him to eat that nice, warm cereal because the doctor said he must have it.

The younger the baby the more apt he is to act in this manner. Young babies have difficulty manipulating thick foods. They treat them as they would the rubber nipple and push at them with their tongues, with the results mentioned before.

If the baby does this persistently, don't jump to the conclusion that he hates vegetables or cereals and will never have them. Wait a week or two and then try again. Just that time interval will bring him to a point of development which may make spoon feeding easier for him.

Put a small portion of the food on the tip of a small spoon and insert it rather far back in baby's mouth. Hold the baby in your arms and let him lie back so that he isn't pushing his head toward the spoon, but is relaxed and calm.

If the first spoonful comes out, try again, talking soothingly and helping the baby to see that this is something good that he is being asked to accept.

If he chokes—and he may—don't get excited and act frightened. Lift him up, pat his back and when he is through coughing, try another spoonful. If you make him fearful when he chokes, he'll be set against accepting anything you present on a spoon.

Once the baby has learned the art of swallowing thick foods, this skill won't be lost and from then on feeding should be a simple matter. But, it is important that his first experiences should be pleasant ones.

Our leaflet No. 44 "Teaching Use of Cup and Spoon," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with this request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

Bridge

BY WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

America's Card Authority

There is a language in the play of cards in bridge. By that I do not mean the message conveyed by a scowl or a glare when your partner plays a particular suit, nor do I mean banging your cards on the table to draw your partner's attention to it. There are players who pay more attention to the scowls and tangs than to the actual language of cards.

In today's hand you can see that if North had opened a club, the contract would have been defeated. He cannot be criticized for opening a spade in response to his partner's four-spade bid, but when South put the deuce of spades on the ace, then North should have shifted to a club.

Paying no attention to his partner's play, North continued with

West won the second spade trick and immediately cashed the ace and king of hearts. He led a small diamond to dummy and ruffed the third diamond with the king of diamonds. Another diamond was played to dummy and the fourth heart returned. On this declarer discarded one of the losing clubs. North ruffed and returned a club.

But now it was too late. Declarer won the club with the ace, led a trump to dummy, picking up North's last trump, and on dummy's fifth heart West discarded the other losing trick.

Hesitating with a singleton, indicating disapproval of partner's lead or play, or doubling in an emphatic tone of voice so that partner cannot doubt that it is a business double . . . these are all very unethical tactics. In tournament bridge these things are dealt with very seriously.

Logging Camps in West Area Start Big Winter Operations

NORTHVILLE. — With winter clamping down in an iron grip on the bushland to the south and west, logging camps of contractors to the Swanson Lumber Co. Ltd., the principal operator in this district, are working at full speed in a radius of anything from 10 to 30 miles from here.

Conditions are ideal from the loggers' point of view, as a succession of cold, freezing nights for some weeks prior to the recent snowfall, has put bush roads in good shape for hauling the heavy loads of supplies and lumber which will now roll night and day until spring thaws put an end to operations.

Mostly Spruce

Most of the logs felled are spruce, and these are sawed into rough boards and dimension lumber which are trucked into the planer here for conversion into various classifications of finished lumber.

Some rough lumber also is shipped in from further west by freight train on a spur track running right into the mill from the main line of the C.N.R. Finished product all goes away by freight and some of it eventually finds its way overseas to points as far away as British West Africa to speed the work of reconstruction in various countries.

In addition to the lumber sawed at bush mills, pickpine logs also are sawed into railway ties, while some are hewed by hand.

Other camps are operated by the same firm north and west of Elkson, and in central British Columbia. Total number of employes is not definitely known, but it is believed to be around the four-figure mark. Two other planing mills are worked in addition to the one at Northville, and the total annual output is said to be close on to 25,000,000 board feet of all classes of lumber.

Principal contractors are: Bruce Tyndal, Eric Rundstrom, A. Nero & son, Propp Bros., Henry Kuster, Fred Hanson, Roland McCormick, Mr. Clark, from Saskatchewan, Gus Berglund, and others.

Stores at Lacombe Are Closed Early

LACOMBE.— Stores and other places of business were closed here Saturday night and will remain closed each Saturday night in the future.

This action was definitely decided on at a recent council meeting when third and final reading was given the early Saturday night closing bylaw.

Family of Millet Is Given Farewell

MILLET.—Following the regular Sunday evening service at the Millet Baptist church, a farewell gathering was held for the Tiede family, who are leaving the district to make their home in Vernon, B.C.

Mr. Tiede had been a deacon of the church for a number of years, and had been teacher of the adult Sunday school class. All members of the family have been active workers in church affairs.

An address of regret at the loss of these friends were voiced by members of choir, young people, Sunday school and church.

Hold Last Rites Millet Resident

MILLET.—Funeral services were held recently for Mrs. Augusta Gertrude Ann Deans, services being held in the United church with Rev. Wright, of Donalda, officiating.

Mrs. Deans was well-known in this district as she was an untiring worker in all community activities.

Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, Harry and James Millet; one daughter, Rachel at home and one granddaughter, Marion and one nephew, Ray Nicholl. There are two brothers, August and Fred Kreye, Stony Plain and one sister, Mrs. W. McDougall, Magnolia.

Burial was in the Millet cemetery.

Innisfail Singer Winner Of $1,000 Scholarship

INNISFAIL.—Betty Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, residents here for many years, has won a $1,000 scholarship to further her training as a singer at the British Columbia Institute of Music and Drama. The scholarship is offered by the Gault Brothers.

She was awarded the scholarship by Albert Steinberg, conductor and concert master of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Steinberg selected Miss Smith out of more than 20 contestants.

Miss Smith was born at Fairview in the Peace River district and came to Innisfail with her parents as a small girl.

She took her public and high school training in Innisfail and attended the normal school in Calgary. She taught near Penhold for a year and then joined the staff of the Innisfail school where she taught until she joined the R.C.A.F. women's division, with which she served until the close of the war.

MAYERTHORPE. — Two high school students, Lillian O'Shea and Neil Weir, are assisting N. L. Daniels, editor of the Review, get out the weekly edition. The paper is a 10-page mimeograph which Mr. Daniels has been publishing since last January.

Red Deer Board Seeking Schools

RED DEER.— Plans for the building of two new schools were discussed and approved by the public school board meeting recently. Building of the schools, however, must be approved by the provincial government and following that approval must be obtained from the ratepayers for the issue of debentures.

J. M. Stevenson, Calgary architect, presented sketches of the plans for the schools, one a four-roomed building to be built on the south school grounds and the other a two-roomed school for North Red Deer.

The rooms are to accommodate classes of 35 to 40 pupils and are designed to use a new type of bilateral lighting.

It is believed the new school units will cost about $77,000.

Mundare Curlers Reconstruct Rink

MUNDARE.— Curling rink was moved recently from the outskirts of Mundare and was rebuilt by volunteer workers of the club membership. Boys from the school general shop helped shingle the roof.

There will be a caretaker for each of the curling and skating rinks.

Weisenthal Group Has Anniversary

MILLET. — Weisenthal Baptist Young People held a birthday party in the church recently, the occasion being the 27th anniversary of the organization.

Program consisted of scripture reading, prayers, recitations and singing. At the close a lunch was served in the church basement and tables were set to represent each month and each member found their place card at the table which represented the month in which his birthday fell.

C.B.C. Has Option On Lacombe Land

LACOMBE.— Option on 40 acres of land owned by Jack Arbuckle, four miles southeast of Lacombe, has been taken by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, it is learned here. The option, which expires in six months, was taken after C.B.C. representatives inspected the property recently.

Mr. Alexander stated he had "no idea" what the C.B.C. desired the land for as officials gave no indication as to why they had taken option.

It is known in this district, however, that the corporation has been long contemplating the building of a new radio station somewhere in central Alberta.

It had been announced that Red Deer was the site for a new station but no further action has been taken.

St. Paul Market Damaged by Fire

ST. PAUL.—For the second time within a week the modern fire-fighting equipment here quickly extinguished what might have been a more serious blaze as the meat market of Noel Salfrance was damaged Saturday morning. Fire loss is believed to be about $1,000. Full insurance was carried.

Blaze is believed to have started near the stove, but with the new truck and other conveniences firemen had the fire out within half an hour.

District Personals

ATHABASKA.—Miss Inez Shaw is on the staff of the Viking municipal hospital.—W. E. Hodgson has returned from Calgary where he attended a school trustees' convention.—Mrs. W. Richardson, Greencourt, is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. Poulton.—Mr. J. T. Mackie have left to take up residence in Duncan, B.C.—Mr. and Mrs. Terence Shank are visiting the home of Mr. Shank's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Shank.—Mrs. Joe Atkinson and Charlie Harper were winners of two tickets given by the Canadian Coachways at the veterans' dance here.—The evening branch, All Saints' W.A. met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Labrie recently at their regular meeting and farewell party in honor of Mrs. J. W. Pooke who expects to leave shortly.—Miss Mary Lou Branch sister of George LaBranch was aboard the airplane that crashed near Barbank, Calif.—Word has been received here of the death of Ralph N. Harriman at th coast. He was well known in this district.—Emil Dufresne has left for Edmonton.—A farewell tea was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Preece for Mrs. J. W. Pooke and Mrs. J. T. Mackie.

WHITE COURT.—David Nisbet, C.N.R. night watchman here, is giving up his job and will take another with the railway in Edmonton.—More than $20 were realized from the sale of poppies here.—Lieut. H. C. Merrifield has returned from an extended visit to his home in Southall, England. He is a veteran of the First and Second Great Wars.

ELK POINT.—An unusual party was held in the school here recently when the Students' Union sponsored a "Sadie Hawkins" party. A competition, based on naming the different characters from clippings of "Li' Abner" was won by Arthur Vaughan and Virginia Arnold. Highlight was the auctioning off of the "bachelors" in which the girls bid for the boys whose shadows were thrown on a screen. The party concluded with dancing. Function was conducted by a social committee of Ivy Ross, Phyllis Smith, Victor Cline and Nick Wysocki. Betty Payne, Grace Miller and Ella Andulivicius were on the lunch committee.

NORTHVILLE.—Ernest G. Harnesk, farmer of the Spruce Grove district, has discontinued farming and has accepted a job as teamster for Swanson Lumber Co., Ltd. He is a brother of Carl A. Berg who has been employed by the company for a number of years. Mrs. C. W. Bransford has received word of the death of her brother, John P. Payne, of El Reno, Oklahoma, after a lingering illness. News of the death was a shock to Mrs. Bransford, who recently suffered the bereavement of the loss of a sister who had lived in the Wildwood district. Deceased is survived, in addition to Mrs. Bransford, by a brother Tony Payne, Wildwood farmer.

HANNA. — A new club was organized recently for children of all ages by the Hanna Full Gospel Mission. — Arthur Hanson, a resident of Hanna for many years, died in the Hanna municipal hospital recently —Ellsworth Long has recovered from serious injuries received in an accident while harvesting.

VEGREVILLE. — Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. S. Keifer gathered recently to surprise them on the eve of their departure from the district. They have lived for many years in the Alida district and will be greatly missed. They will reside in Vancouver.—Mr. and Mrs.

Cleanest Village Aim of Sangudo

SANGUDO.— Action to make Sangudo one of the cleanest villages in central Alberta was taken recently by the village council. A bylaw on garbage disposal was passed by the council and will be strictly enforced.

The bylaw prohibits placing of any garbage on any vacant lot or any lane or street. It also stated that any garbage or household residue must be placed on the occupant's property and the occupant must make arrangements to have it removed.

Approximately 35 old-timers attended the recent old-timers' dance and banquet at Sangudo, the affair being sponsored by the Pembina Valley Old-Timers' association. Banquet was prepared by the Ladies' Aid of the United church.

What a Joy is Motherhood

When the health is good.

The story of happy motherhood is beautifully told in the illustration.

Perhaps this young mother was fortunate in having the advice of other mothers to tell her of the advantages of using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food both before and after child-birth, in order to help ensure the welfare of both mother and child.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food can be of real help to enable the mother to quickly regain her vigor and strength as well as to aid her during the period of lactation.

It is only natural that this experience should be a considerable strain on her vitality as well as on her nervous system, but by using this medicine to supply Vitamin B1 and the food minerals so essential to her health as well as that of her child, she should find joy in her motherhood. This has been the experience of many happy mothers.

How to cook steaks, chops and roasts

Certain basic rules should be followed in the cooking of steaks, chops and roasts to arrive at full flavor and tenderness. The broiling and roasting times listed below will be a quick and easy reference pasted in your scrap book of recipes.

BROILING — DIRECT HEAT

Steaks and chops should be 1-inch thick or thicker for broiling. Place meat 2 to 3 inches from heat. Brown one side of meat then turn, by inserting fork into fat, and brown the other side. About half of broiling time is required for each side, reducing heat to complete cooking after turning and browning. Season meat after browning or just before serving.

BROILING STEAKS AND CHOPS

Steak 1½ inches thick:
15 minutes—rare
20 minutes—medium
25 minutes—well-done
Lamb Chops 1 inch thick:
12 - 20 minutes
Lamb Chops 2 inches thick:
20 - 30 minutes
Pan-Broiling

Slightly grease heavy frying pan and heat to sizzling-hot. Brown meat well, about 1 minute, on both sides then reduce temperature. Turn meat at intervals and continue cooking until done. Pour off fat, as it accumulates. Do not cover pan. Do not add water.

ROASTING — DRY HEAT

A meat thermometer is an accurate guide for roasting tender cuts of meat. Roasts should be served as quickly as possible after removing from the oven for the desired degree of doneness, otherwise, since the cooking process continues, the meat may be overdone.

Place roast on a rack or trivet fat side up in a pan 2 inches deep or less, uncovered. (Place rib roast on rib, fat side up, without rack.) Season meat if desired—flouring not necessary. Do not baste or turn meat.

ROASTING TIMES AND TEMPERATURES

500° F. to 350° F. constant temperature. (Increase roasting time approximately 10 minutes per pound for rolled or boned roasts.)

Beef:
22 to 25 minutes per lb.—rare
25 to 30 minutes per lb.—medium
30 to 32 minutes per lb.—well-done

Lamb:
30 to 35 minutes per lb.—medium
35 to 40 minutes per lb.—well-done

Pork:
40 to 45 minutes per lb.—well-done

Veal:
40 to 45 minutes per lb.—well-done
